PRESS CLUB DINNER WEDNESDAY EVENING

Sumptuous Repast Prepared for Occasion in Honor of Fred Dawson.

GOOD PROGRAM

Stein, Perry, Davidson, Ekau and Harmon to Entertain.

Fred Dawson will formally, or more likely informally, take leave of the student body at a banquet to be given Wednesday evening at the "Gym" under the auspices of the Press Club. The committee in charge has made all arrangements for a "sumptuous repast." Joe Thearle has been charged with the catering. The tickets, on sale for one dollar, have been well distributed throughout the fraternities and among the neutrals to insure a large attendance. While the affair will take the place of the annual Press Club Dinner it is a college affair this year and demands the support of the entire student body. Many of the fraternity houses have adopted the right initiative and are not serving dinner Wednesday, trusting that the pangs of hunger will be an important factor in deciding the maneuvers of those who are "on the fence." This, however, is not necessary for those who know what is to take place. The dinner alone will be sufficient to attract the epicurishly inclined, to wit:

Cream Tomato Soup
Dinner Biscuits
Olives Jelly Celery
Prime Ribs Beef
Peas Mashed Potatoes
Fruit Salad Ice Cream
Assorted Cakes Coffee

In addition to this there will be some good speeches while Stein, Davidson, Perry, Skau and Harmon will attend to the musical end of the program. Bennettically speaking it will be an "auspicious occasion" and one worth while at tending.

TAMSETT SELECTED BY ATHLETIC BOARD TO FILL DAWSON'S PLACE THIS SPRING

Jimmy Tamsett, a former manager of the Albany State League baseball team, and a one time Union coach, has been selected to fill Fred Dawson's place this spring. He was confirmed as coach, Saturday night, at a meeting of the athletic board which took place just before the basketball game.

Jimmy Tamsett has always been engaged in baseball work and it is said that he possesses as much inside information about the game as any man in the state. The choice of the board is highly approved of by George Daley of the New York World and by Bill Smith, a former athletic star, both of whom have been working with the board in its efforts to secure a coach.

In 1899 Tamsett made his debut into baseball by joining the Rome State League baseball team. Two years later he played with the Albany team of the State league. In 1903 and 1904 he was with Indianapolis and Birmingham respectively. The next year he joined the Memphis team from which he went to Toronto in 1906. In 1907 he joined the Harrisburg club of the Tri-State League and the next year he returned to the Albany team. He was made manager of the Albany team in 1911 and continued in that position until 1913. From then until the time of his retirement in 1915 Jimmy was with the Troy team. Tamsett has held the infield positions of shortstop, third base, and second base, thus giving him an exceptionally complete knowledge of the infield.

The coming season will not be the first that Jimmy has spent at Union. In 1900 he was here before in the capacity of coach. Conditions upon the hill are therefore not unknown to Tamsett, who has a real interest in Union and in her success.

"BALMY LAND" WILL GO TO ELMIRA MARCH 31st

Engagements in New York, Albany, and Gloversville Also Considered.

Owing to the great success of "Come to Balmy Land," the Dramatic Club have made plans to take the production to Elmira on Saturday, March the thirty-first. This will give the cast, producers and authors a four hundred mile trip and will partly repay them for their labors on the piece. In Elmira the play will be produced at the Lyceum Theatre, a theatre of the same standard as the Van Culler, and a successful performance is assured. "Beezy" Mandeville, the author of the book and lyrics, and Marshall Lowman, the "Jocko" of "Balmy Land" live in Elmira, and this fact will add local interest to the performance. It will probably be necessary to cut the cast to those who are absolutely essential as only sixteen can be taken on the trip. "Jimmy" Hulshizer who made such a hit as Gladys, the soubrette, will be unable to accompany the club to Elmira and his place will be filled by Harold Sammons, one of the directors. Sammons, Gilbert and Downs know every line of the play by heart so that substitutions will not be difficult. Several new effects will be added and several of the rough spots smoothed over. Ralph Knight has composed a new song which he says has anything in the show stopped and this will probably be added in the next week. We hear rumors that a local charity is desirous of repeating the play for the benefit

"SELF SACRIFICE" FORMS THEME OF VESPERS

Dr. Decker Gives Interesting Lecture at Silliman Hall.

Sunday afternoon in Silliman Hall the Rev. Dr. Decker of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Gloversville delivered a delightfully interesting and instructive sermon, taking for his text Mark 10:45.

Dr. Decker drew excellent illustrations of men who desired to acquire power for their own progress and not for the good of their fellows, thinking that they were put in the world to make their own realizations, instead of the betterment of humanity. These, said Dr. Decker, have certain abhorrent results on the world. "Every tree can be told by the fruit it bears." As the result of these sort of men the great wars of the present and past have come, due to the avarice of such men as Alexander the Great, Nero, and Napoleon, the thought of whom the world abominates, men whose talent might have been used in the incomparable extension of that which is great and right.

"The will to serve and not the will to power is the correct conception of all who would be loved by their fellowmen. It is our duty to make the world want its needs as the world does not know what it wants."

of charity and Manager Porter is conferring with them concerning a date. Trips to New York, Albany and Gloversville are also being talked of hopefully.

R. P. I. WINS FINAL GAME OF SEASON

Superior Basket Shooting Enables Visitors to Win by Score of 23-17.

FAST GAME

Over Three Hundred Trojan
Rooters Accompany Team.

Union lost the final game of the season to its old rival, R. P. I., by a score of 23-17, at the Gym Saturday evening. The game, which was an unusually hard one, was marked by the inability of the Garnet five to take advantage of its many opportunities. The floor play of both teams was excellent, Union having a shade on the Trojans, but the basket-shooting of Union was so weak that its team play lost value. The Garnet team fought hard, and the spurt during the last few minutes of play was as fine an exhibition of basketball as Fred Dawson ever secured from a team.

The visiting team was accompanied by a delegation of three hundred students who backed their players with the enthusiasm of a body of men who see the object of many years' earnest effort before them at last. R. P. I. was represented by the best team they ever sent to Schenectady and one of the best teams that has played here his season.

The Union five was a slightly different combination from that of a week before. Captain Scoby and Jimmy Mudge were in their old positions at forward, with Moynihan and Yovits guards. R. P. I. presented the same line-up that has proven so successful in the last few games.

Union started with a rush and had several shots at the basket, all of which missed. Yovits fouled but Woolsey missed his first free throw. The team play of Union again threatened the R. P. I. basket but the Garnet failed to score. Yovits had a personal foul called on him but Capt. Woolsey again failed to make good. Ewing made the first score of the game on a neat shot from the side of the floor. Jimmy Mudge scored when Capt. Woolsey fouled. On the next tip off Capt. Woolsey scored from under the basket on a pass from Ewing. For some time the teams fought evenly, but with the ball near the Union basket, Mudge got away and dribbling through the entire R. P. I. team scored the prettiest shot of the game. The Trojan five came back hard and scored twice in quick succession on shots by Woolsey and Ewing. Union called time out with the score 3-8 against them. Hardly

THE R. P. I. GAME.

Saturday evening witnessed the close of the 1916-1917 basketball season with the R. P. I. game. For many reasons the memory of that contest will remain in the hearts of Union students for some time to come. One reason is that we were defeated by a college which never before has had the opportunity to jump on our floor twenty-three times to impress us of their victory. Their enthusiasm was inspiring. Would that we had had the like earlier in the season. But this year has been one of general success. With the hardest schedule any Union team has faced, practically a new team at the start, and two positions changed in mid-season the record of nine victories and seven defeats seems remarkable. Even the most sanguine optimist would have hesitated to predict victories over Princeton and Dartmouth at the opening of the schedule. Hence we should not judge the season by the outcome of Saturday's game, for the Garnet squad has upheld their end with honor.

Another reason is that this game marked the end of the basketball careers of Captain Scoby and Galbraith at Union. Two better men we could not have representing us on the court, and their presence has aided materially in making the season so successful.

But perhaps the principle reason is that Saturday evening marked the termination of Fred Dawson's services as athletic coach here. It is quite impossible to state just how much we will miss the man who has developed such athletic ability that we expect little less than a victory every time we enter a contest.

There is no need of eulogizing at length on these topics. While each of them is sufficient in itself to cause alarm, yet the combination of them all which we brought home to us Saturday night is a mighty jolt after these years of uninterrupted successes. Let us hope Jimmy Tamsett can make us regain our confidence. And he will if the students give their unqualified support.

THE DAWSON DINNER

It has been the custom for some years past to hold an annual dinner in the gymnasium for the athletic teams. These affairs have served to heighten the enthusiasm of the undergraduates in athletics generally, and are the only occasions when the whole student body is together for any length of time. They form the few yearly opportunities to meet the entire faculty in a more or less informal way.

This year the dinner becomes more important because Fred Dawson takes his leave at that time. It will be the last opportunity to hear him as connected with Union. Also, a better dinner has been prepared and an elaborate entertainment will follow the repast. It is hoped that the students will enter into the spirit of the event with the enthusiasm which the success of Union athletic teams deserves.

Schenectady, N. Y.,
March 15, 1917.

Editor CONCORDIENSIS:

When, in a recent number of Concordy, I offered my comment on the attitude taken by one of the Freshmen when the bill for universal military service was under discussion, it was not with the idea of "starting something." However Mr. Smith's reply compels me to add a few more words for two reasons: First, because he has misunderstood my letter and secondly, because his reply is so indicative of that rather loose manner of thinking which is only too frequently encountered.

In the first place I did not even suggest that Mr. Smith was ridiculous, only wishing him to see that the Freshmen are not as a rule more subject to ridicule than other people and it was in this regard, as Mr. Smith can see by reading my first letter that I ventured to hope that he would change his views. I may add that I believe that Mr. Smith showed fully as much dignity during his speech as could be desired. That Union men, always so punctiliously-courteous when our rivals in various activities visit us, should have acted as so many did when Mr. Smith spoke is deplorable, but this does not justify Mr. Smith's attitude. I apologize for mentioning Mr. Smith as the spokesman of the Freshmen. The readiness with which he rose to the occasion would have seemed to indicate fore knowledge and that 1920 had acted with its usual speed. I am glad to be corrected.

Now a word in regard to Mr. Smith's remarks relative to the bill. At the risk of yet again incurring Mr. Smith's displeasure, I venture to suggest that he is hardly logical in his condemnation of this particular bill. Mr. Smith states that the bill compels every able bodied male with a few exceptions to train for six months

*** without any recompense. Does Mr. Smith object to this? Has not this government of a free people an undoubted right to expect service from all its citizens? And if so why should the people pay the people? Mr. Smith would hardly object to equal money taxes, who then to labor taxes? Or does he object because women and others unfit for military service are not called upon? Surely a democracy would not lay further burdens upon those already handicapped in the struggle of life. Does his objection arise from the fact that many will not have this training because of age? There are those on this campus, men too old to be the best soldiers, who have not only given of their time but even paid the government to take that time to secure just this training to which Mr. Smith objects and who because of their age (over

Mr. Smith does not object to governmental compulsion in regard to training against ignorance and disease or he would not have gotten so far as to have entered college, why then object to what is now recognized so equally essential, training for defense? To me for one the paltry sum equivalent to six months of my time is small recompense for an ignorance of how to do my share in preventing in this country such horrors as befell the innocent people of Belgium and Northern France.

If Mr. Smith still believes himself right in the stand he took, I certainly do not ask him to apologize for what seems to him wrong. Instead those who disagree with him will apologize for him. However I doubt if Mr. Smith is really so—I beg him to pardon me but I must say it,—so undemocratic as his words would lead us to believe.

FROSH WIN AT INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL

Seniors Eliminated in Exciting Game by Score of 13-8.

In a fast and rough game at the Gym Saturday afternoon the Freshmen clinched their hold on the inter-class basketball trophy by trimming the Seniors to the score of 13-8. While the 1920 quintet kept a safe lead from the beginning, the game was exciting throughout, and only by the smooth passwork did the victors attain their end. Collins, '20, was the individual star of the game, totalling nine points for the Freshmen alone. A few acrobatic stunts were worked, as well as considerable tumbling, which amused the large number of rooters on each side.

In order to avoid conflict with the banquet, all activities in Silliman Hall will be omitted on Wednesday evening, March 21st. This will necessitate the omission of Mission Study groups 1 and 3, and the Wednesday session of the English and foreign classes.

The election of officers for the season of 1917-18 will be held in the Hall at 7:30 this evening. The nominations are as follows:

For President, Irving M. Day, '18.
For Vice-President, Arthur J. Newman, '18.

For Treasurer, William L. Kennedy, '18, Arthur B. Dougall, '19.

For Secretary, John Hoag, '20, Elmer Smith, '20, Raymond Perry, '20, R. Irwin Johannesen, '20.

Only those who are active members or who have shown an active interest in the Association will be qualified.

The committee has as yet reached no definite decision regarding a general secretary for next year, but it is understood that the employment of one is assured.

Arrangements are being made to secure Edward A. Mead of New York City as a speaker at a general service for collegemen. Mr. Mead is a lecturer and elocutionist of note, and is well known in this city.

It will be remembered that he addressed a large meeting in Schenectady last spring when he read "Damaged Goods," under the auspices of the city Association.

had play been resumed when Woolsey fouled and Mudge scored on his free shot. R. P. I. then started. Parrot scored on a shot from the center of the floor, and Ewing and Robertson followed suit in the next two plays. Jimmy Mudge missed a chance at a free throw. Woolsey missed a foul shot on Moynihan, but Ewing followed a basket scored from the floor. Before the ball could again be put in play the period ended with R. P. I. leading 16-4.

The second period opened with some fast pass work by both teams, but after two minutes' play Robertson fouled. Mudge missed the shot and Moynihan in attempting to block a pass was caught holding. Woolsey scored the first point of the half. After a series of long shots by R. P. I. Parrott fouled and Jimmy Mudge again failed to shoot Union's score. Woolsey again scored from the foul line after three minutes play when Captain Scoby offended, but missed a similar opportunity a moment later on Moynihan. Captain Scoby brought the audience to its feet by a dash down the entire length of the floor, but after getting clear he missed an easy shot from under the basket. The Union attack was growing harder and several shots were made which should have been good for points, but which somehow failed to go through the ring. Mudge made Union's first score of the period on a free shot when Woolsey fouled, but Woolsey evened matters by scoring a foul shot on Moynihan, and a minute later making a basket from the side of the court. Mudge again made

TWO MORE CONCERTS FOR MUSICAL CLUBS

Johnstown and Saratoga Trips
Will End Fifteen Concert Season.

Manager Elliot V. Jones of the Musical Clubs has announced that the next concert of the organization will take place at Johnstown, Friday evening, April 13th. Plans are also tentative for another concert which will be given at Saratoga on Monday, April 16th. If these plans materialize, the clubs will have given fifteen concerts since the opening of the season. This year's organization will have been the first in a number of years, to give the maximum number of concerts under the faculty ruling, which admits of fifteen performances. The Musical Clubs are soon to wind up one of the most successful seasons in their history, the credit for this good showing being divided between excellent material, efficient management, and hearty support of the alumni.

good when Parrot fouled. Union called time out with five minutes left to play. Moynihan was taken out and Peaselee substituted in his place. When play was resumed Union started her final attempt for victory. Mudge made a pretty shot and started the scoring. Scoby scored and Galbraith scored twice in succession. R. P. I. called time out with the score 22-14 in their favor and three minutes left to play. The cheering sections were wild, and the R. P. I. team seemed to be about to break. The instant time was called Union was off with a rush, but in his eagerness Scoby fouled and Woolsey scored. On the next play a foul was called on R. P. I. and Mudge made good. Union attempted long shots, while R. P. I. played for time. With thirty seconds left Galbraith broke up the R. P. I. pass work and scored from the side. Union secured the ball on the tip off, but before further scoring could be made time was called with R. P. I. leading, 23-17.

ALUMNI TO DINE DAWSON THURSDAY

The local alumni will give an informal dinner in honor of Union's departing coach, Fred Dawson, on Thursday evening of this week in the Indian Room of the Mohawk hotel. The local committee in charge of this event are W. C. Yates, '98, E. T. Grout, '02, Pete Hill, '12, C. S. Hequembourg, '12, and J. L. Walton, '12. A good quartet has been secured for the event, and without doubt it will be a genuine old get-together. Since Johnny Bennett is to act as toastmaster, the affair cannot fail to be an auspicious occasion.

1912 HOLDS DINNER

The class of 1912 pledged its services to the nation in the event of war at its Spring dinner at the Mohawk Hotel Saturday evening. President "Chic" Hequembourg also announced plans for the alumni reunion at commencement this Spring. Many local alumni were in attendance.

Dr. Berg will entertain the members of the Cosmopolitan Club at his home Tuesday evening.
