"TUBBY" SCORES WITH LONG DROP KICK; MAKES ONLY TALLY OF LISTLESS GAME

Saturday's Game Is 3-0 Victory.

CONTEST RATHER SLOW

Needham Stars for Worcester, Rosekrans, Mudge and Delaplante Lead Union Offensive.

By a 3 to 0 score Union won from Worcester Tech. Saturday, on Alexander Field. Without doubt both teams fought hard, but it was quite evident, nevertheless, that Unions eleven lacked that fervid smashing quality which characterized its play at Williamstown and which made us all feel confident of future success, although the score showed us defeated. Here and there an unusually good play—as for instance "Tubby" Rosekranz's drop kick against a strong wind from the thirty-five yard line,—was made, but as a whole the game was poorer than usual.

Although the wind was blowing hard "Tubby's" kick to Worcester sailed well down the field. Homer Goff, who without doubt was the surest tackler on our line, landed the runner on the thirty yard mark. In the offensive which followed the visitors were penalized 15 yards for holding and were thrown back 12 more on a fumbled kick. Worcester, of course, had to kick. Jimmy Mudge received the ball, and later principally by line bucks and line plunges from kick formation worked the ball back to about thirty-five yards from Worcester's goal where he had to kick. On the next play the visitors made an easy first down on their fake play from kick formation. Then they were held and made to punt, but fortunately for us the kick was short.

FOUR FRATERNITIES HOLD FALL DANCES

Kappa Alpha, Delta Phi, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Gamma Delta Entertain.

FIRST OF SEASON.

Each Party Declared the Greatest Success—Phi Gams Hold Largest of Four.

The dancing season of 1916-17 was duly inaugurated upon the hill last Saturday evening when four fraternity houses gave dances. All of them were unqualified successes. The houses which started the social ball rolling are: Kappa Alpha, Delta Phi, Beta Theta Pi and Phi Gamma Delta.

The party at the Phi Gamma Delta was the largest one on the Hill, since eight members of the Worcester chapter, members and rooters of the Worcester team, were present. After the game the young people returned to the house where dinner was served from half past five until eight o'clock. From then on until twelve o'clock there was dancing. At twelve refreshments were served by the members of the freshman class. One o'clock found every one pretty well tired out and to the tune of "Good Night Ladies" the party broke up. Mr. and Mrs. Dan L. Wood were the chaperons. In all 68 were present.

The Beta Theta Pi was next in size with a list of 40 young people. The program was about the same as that of the other house, namely, dinner from half past five until eight and dancing until twelve. The evening's pleasure ended at one o'clock after refreshments had been served. The view

NOTES ON MEETING

Williams '17 Appointed Varsity Song Leader For Coming Year.

Loud applause greeted Tubby Rosekrans in meeting Monday. The victory was not exactly satisfactory, but we must be satisfied. Next week the team goes to Columbia. Then a hard battle is going to occur.

A presidential straw vote on Wilson and Hughes was taken. The result was 184 to 130 in favor of the G. O. P. nominee.

VARSITY SONG LEADER

There will be a special rally and parade of the Wilson collegers tonight at 8:00 o'clock.

Caps for freshmen must be of one vivid green variety, announced Dow Roof.

He went on to announce that Hugh Williams has been appointed song leader for the year.

Mandolin Club will meet Wednesday at 4:30, said "Windy" Downs.

SPIRITUAL FITNESS IS GOD'S STANDARD

Says Rev. J. W. Young at Sunday's Vespers.

SACRIFICE NECESSARY.

Talk Concerns Position in Kingdom of Heaven.

Those who attended yesterday's vesper service heard, in the address given by Rev. J. Wallace Young, assistant pastor of the United People's Church, several truths which have a tremendous bearing upon the life of every college man. "Our position in the Kingdom of Heaven" was his subject, and at the close of the talk his hearers had a pretty clear idea of the spiritual qualities necessary for those who shall be with the Master in eternity.

"To understand the attitude of the mother of Zebedee's children in the text, who asked of Jesus the positions on his right and left in His kingdom for her two sons, we must look with a critical eye upon the conception of the kingdom held by the disciples themselves. They were constantly seeking a material one and the best positions in it for themselves. Just so the wife of Zebedee had a similar not entirely unselfish ambition for her children. She could not understand that in eternity the rewards will be according to merit—that the kingdom of heaven is a natural and not an arbitrary kingdom. Her counterparts in the life of today are numberless. Most common are the legion of office-seekers who are constantly demanding positions which their abilities do not justify. Then there are the socially ambitious, the title-buyers and purchasers of college degrees not by scholarship but with money. Just so are there many who, in the last day will expect positions in heaven which, according to the fitness of things they will never occupy."

"The fact that God has absolute power in His kingdom is no

REFINING AND DINING.

"Certainly crowded college meetings where feeling ran high, where opinions were hotly advanced and as hotly challenged, where everyone spoke his mind through his vote, belong to the past. That alarming indifference which followed the passing of the town meeting has just as surely followed the passing of the college meeting. Nowadays, without debate, without a dissenting voice, a chorus of eyes eagerly greets every motion proposed at college meetings. Men who rise to speak are admonished in loud whispers to sit down; questions are hastily put to vote; apparently the sole business of the evening is to sing 'The Mountains' as quickly as possible." —Williams Record.

Thus does the Williams Record lament the degradation of the college meeting. The same condition exists here, produced by several causes. Those with the ability to be floor leaders of an opposition are usually on the Terrace Council; hence they are desirous to see the measure which is on the carpet pass, having previously approved it, or if they have not, are reluctant to oppose their comrades in student meeting. Others possessing ability to think and speak on their feet are either indifferent or void of an opinion, so little time is given for consideration if a measure is voted on the day introduced, so soon it is forgotten if laid on the table. But the great underlying cause, which cannot exist at Williams where meetings are held in the evening, is hunger.

From three to four hundred healthy men, five hours since they have tasted food are asked to play the statesman in student meeting when a meal is waiting them at home. Who would wag his tongue in argument when his maw is crying out for pap? What resolution or motion of such pith and moment that it can stay a man from dinner? What eloquence can appease the ravenous beast enchained in the belly, making men forget to eat? None.

"The face of his first love; the bills that he owes;
The twaddle of friends and the venom of foes;
The sermon he heard when to church he last went;
The money he borrowed; the money he spent;
All these things a man, I believe, may forget
And not be the worse for forgetting, but yet
Never, never, oh, never earth's luckiest sinner
Hath unpunished forgotten the hour of his dinner."

"Yond Cassius has a pale and hungry look; he thinks too much; such men are dangerous." Ay, but lean and hungry he will not think on propositions for argument; not dangerous as a filibuster. Affirmative votes hasten adjournment,—and so to lunch.

The Week's Editorials.

"Be it moved, UNFINISHED that the members of the Student Council be eligible at the beginning of each semester in order to receive election to the Council or to retain their membership thereon." This motion, offered at a College meeting last spring, was held over for final action until "The next College meeting." That "next meeting" will be the first of the present year.

At the time of the drafting of the constitution of the Council, no clause excluding ineligible from membership was incorporated. It appears to have been the opinion of the organizers that ineligible should not serve; more than that that ineligible would certainly resign from the Council voluntarily. The presence of ineligible students upon the Council subsequently created considerable dissatisfaction and ultimately brought about the motion stated above.

The devisers of that motion recognized an evil and endeavored to form a corrective measure. It is well put: sufficiently coercive to exact obedience from the mentally lax, while at the same time giving room for the play of their individual pride in keeping the personnel of the Council intact. Election to the Student Council is no mean honor. The man who receives the distinction should feel the personal responsibility imposed upon him by his classmates to maintain the position as one of honor. It is his duty to keep pace with the class he represents. Furthermore, since his position necessitates dealing not only with undergraduates but with faculty members as well, he as an individual, together with the Council as a whole, must be able to command the respect not only of the students but also of the faculty. Men who become ineligible because of plain laziness never can command that respect.—Williams Record.

"TUBBY" SCORES WITH LONG DROP KICK

The offensive which led to our field goal started in the middle of the field. The distance was made the first time without much trouble, thus bringing us to Worcester's forty yard mark. As the Garnet backs were unable to get the distance again, "Tubby" kicked. The ball floated over the thirty-five intervening yards and passed beautifully between the goal posts. As this score was the only one of the game, the kick saved the day.

Again Worcester chose to receive the ball. Before the man had started Goff and Bowman landed him, about twenty-five yards from the posts. Union held splendidly and Worcester's kick was caught by "Tubby," who ran the ball back well. When the period ended we were playing offensively on their ten yard line.

At the beginning of the second period "Charlie" Delaplante bucked the line for a full 12 yard gain. Worcester then held and forced us to kick. A 15 yard penalty was inflicted on Worcester for holding, which made them kick. After the ball changed hands twice more, the offensive which brought us to Worcester's 5 yard line, began. From our 10 yard line a play through right tackle netted us some five yards of the necessary 10, but the next two did not take the ball the required distance. A forward to Goff was attempted, but as it was blocked the ball was given to the eleven in black on its twenty yard line.

Here Worcester started another good offensive, which was of short duration, however, since Hay nabbed a fumbled ball.

Again we were held on downs and were forced to kick. On account of good tackles by both Bowman and Hay, Worcester punted to Mudge in the middle of the gridiron. The half ended with the pigskin in our hands on the visitors' thirty-five yard mark.

Don Price, who had taken Spear's place as guard in the second period, caught the kick-off. Our best pass was made by "Tubby" and was caught by "Bill" Friday. "Tubby" tried another drop kick which, however, was intercepted by a Worcester man. Bowman shot through the line and threw one of their backs for a 10 yard loss. Worcester then made a bad fumble. After three unsuccessful forwards "Tubby" had to kick again. Worcester came crashing down the field until the third period ended with the ball on our 20 yard line in Worcester's hands.

The visiting team lacked punch enough to get the distance and the ball went to Union on a kick. We, too, soon had to punt back. Worcester made an easy ten yards on a splendid forward, and then gained five more through the line. Again they lost on downs. After the ball had changed hands twice Worcester was penalized 15 yards for holding, and the game ended with Union still three points ahead.

of all seems to indicate that this was one of the most successful of all the Beta affairs. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Starbuck, Mrs. E. S. Vrooman and Mrs. Hugh Dunn.

Running a close second in numbers to the Betas dance was that given at the Delta Phi house at which 38 people were present.

order of procedure was of course much the same as that at the other houses. Among the visitors were Horace Zimmer '16 who spent the week-end at the house; and J. Gordon Gidley. Mrs. Thomas R. Perry of Utica and Mrs. Roblee Vaughn officiated as chaperones.

In spite of the fact that they had the smallest number present the Kaps had one of the best dances on the hill. From reports which have been heard so far everything indicate that the entire party was a success. The party broke up at one o'clock. proof that He can give to anyone a place upon His right hand when the seeker for that place does not deserve it. Just as the president of a college or the chief executive of the United States may, in a measure, choose for his associates whomsoever he wishes, but places his own desire subordinate to justice, so God considers fitness before giving anyone a desired place in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus' reply to Zebedee's wife was of the same tenor as that which a request by her of a similar kind would have elicited from Dr. Nott had she asked for her sons a position of trust in Union College. Jesus said, 'It is not mine to give. Can you drink of the cup that I drink of and be baptized as I am baptized'; that is, 'can either of you or your sons fit for the place which you request?' Dr. Nott would have answered, 'I cannot give such a position to your sons if they are not of that mental calibre which is demanded in an associate of mine.'

"To drink of the cup of which Christ drank we who would be near Him in eternity must taste of self-sacrifice." Mr. Young, in speaking of the necessity of this quality in our moral make-up, said, "There is nothing to be gained in this world except through self-sacrifice; the man who shuns that path has forever forfeited the best that is in him."

"How many of us have the capacity for a position in the kingdom of heaven? Worldly ambition characterizes all of us. We seem to have little concern for fitness of heart, of soul, and of mind."

Or will it be Peter, the closing chapters of whose life were one great atonement? We do not know. It may be a poor washerwoman in some back alley. But whoever it is, God will decide aright.
