FACULTY ANNOUNCES 1917's HONOR MEN

Buell, Frankel, Clough, Williams,
Chapman and Hallock
Are Selected.

VALEDICTORIAN IS BUELL

Who Also Stood At Top of His Class At Gloversville
School.

The names of the honor men of the Senior Class were announced by the faculty yesterday. The list of men, who, by virtue of their scholastic standing, are entitled to speak on the Commencement stage includes the names of the following: Irwin A. Buell, of North Hampton; Jacob Frankel, of Schenectady; Wilson O. Clough, of Schenectady; Hugh J. Williams, of Elmhurst, Pa.; David F. Chapman, of Broadalbin; Arthur C. Hallock, of Schenectady; John H. Tregurtha, of Schenectady; Robert H. Clapp, of Fairport; George E. Moston, of North Creek; Arnold N. Weeks, of Ticonderoga.

The valedictorian of the class will be Buell. He is somewhat accustomed to such honors, having been valedictorian of his class in the Gloversville High School four years ago. Buell is also president of the newly organized Gloversville Club. Frankel, the second man on the list, has been prominent in debating circles, being at present of the Debating Council. Williams is leader of this year's Glee Club and a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity. Chapman is manager of baseball, president of the Press and Classical Clubs, a member of the Terrace Council and is a Delta Phi. Hallock is a member of Kappa Alpha, and Tregurtha and Clapp are Pyramid Club men. Moston is a Phi Delta Theta and Weeks is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

CAST AND ORCHESTRA LEAVE ON 11:45 MONDAY; AMOROUS MUSICAL PROGRAM DIVULGED

The cast and orchestra of "Come to Balmy Land" will leave for Glens Falls on the 11:45 A. M. train Monday and play there at the Parish Hall that evening. This preliminary performance will smooth down the rough edges and assure the Schenectady people of a finished production.

The patronesses for the Glens Falls performance are Mrs. Marcus C. Allen, Mrs. T. Gilbert Cool, Mrs. T. I. Henning, Mrs. H. W. Knight, Mrs. Walter J. Lapham and Mrs. Frederick B. Richards. Following the show there will be dancing and the hits of the piece will be repeated.

Finale

The announcement that tickets for the Schenectady performance, which is to be on March 16, go on sale to the public Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Van Curler should be carefully heeded. "Come to Balmy Land" with its new musical hits, it is predicted, will take this city by storm.

BEAVERS, HOUGHTON AND WOODS PLAY TONIGHT

Four Graduates and Morgan To Play Against Schenectady
Team.

A basketball team composed for the most part of Union graduates, under the leadership of Ernie Houghton, will meet the Schenectady five in the armory this evening at 9:30. The teams will probably line up as follows: GRADS: Dave and Jake Beaver, forwards; T. D. Woods, center; Morgan and Houghton, guards; Haubner, sixth man. SCHENECTADY: Butch Brothers, forwards; Bradshaw, center; McDermott and Kling, guards.

The Beaver brothers are now studying chemistry at Columbia University. Previous to this they have been playing on the Nanticoke five. Woods is an instructor at the Irving School, Tarrytown, N. Y. Morgan, the only man on the team who is not a Union graduate was captain of the St. Lawrence team last year. He is now assistant coach at the Schenectady High School.

The game will be called at 9:30, this hour having been chosen so not to conflict with the Union-Wesleyan game. The grads' team will have practically no opportunity to practice together since several of the players cannot leave New York until this afternoon. Nevertheless, a fast game is expected.

JUNIOR "GET-TO-GETHER" IS RUN OFF WELL

Third Class Gathering Addressed by Dean Ripton and by Dr. Hale.

The third of a series of student "Get-to-Gethers" was held in Silliman Hall last evening, when the members of the Junior Class were the guests of the association.

The affair was a decided success from start to finish. "Bob" Faust was Master of Ceremonies and started the evening's entertainment by interesting the men in several games which proved entertaining.

Immediately after the games were over, the guests assembled in the north room of the hall and listened to addresses by Dean Ripton, Dr. Hale, John Imrie, and "Bob" Faust. Dean Ripton and John Imrie presented the case of the college association to the juniors and invited them to enter the work for the remainder of the time they are in college. John Imrie explained the purpose of the pledge cards, and distributed them to be signed.

Dr. Hale made a few remarks from the "militaristic" point of view and Faust closed the program with an invitation to partake of refreshments.

While the affair was decidedly informal, some dignity was added to the occasion by faculty members and their wives with the Y. M. C. A. cabinet were in the receiving line. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Hale, Dr. and Mrs. Barnes, Dr. and Mrs. Chase, Dean

WESLEYAN IS TONIGHT'S OPPONENT

Methodists Did Well in Recent Game With Strong Yale
Team.

DANCE AFTER GAME

Both Quintets Are Determined To Make This Contest a Victory.

Tonight the Garnet basketball five will meet the team from Wesleyan for the second time this season. Since the first game with this college, which turned out a victory for Union, the Methodists have had ample time to improve. They made a good showing on last Tuesday night when they suffered a 48-29 defeat from Yale on the Yale court. On this account an element of uncertainty seems to prevail concerning the outcome of tonight's game.

Our team, however, is in splendid working condition and feels confident of putting up a fast game. Through hard work and conscientious effort the men who were out of the game during the earlier part of the season have once more rounded into shape. Also the Garnet has the psychological advantage of playing on its own floor.

Reports from Wesleyan indicate that the Middletown team is determined to come back and retaliate for the defeat administered to them on their own court during the last month. In all events they have been practicing faithfully during the past week. Just how this year's team compares with that of last year is not known. However, it is safe to say that the Wesleyan team will put up a game on a par with any of the teams yet turned out by that Connecticut college.

The teams will probably line up as follows:

Union.	Wesleyan.
Yovits -----	Keeler
Right Forward
Moynihan -----	Harman (Capt.)
Left Forward

BENEFICIAL "KNOCKING."

"Each one of us is well acquainted with that particular type of individual, so common in the life of every community, known as a "knocker." Such persons may or may not play their part in bettering the condition of their associates; if they are willing to try to correct the defects which they so easily find, they cease to be mere "knockers" and become "reformers"; otherwise they are merely a hindrance to those already doing their best. These men represent the spirit of discontent, which after all is the only thing that causes change, and it is the active expression of this discontent, which brings about progress.

There are at present many definite problems confronting the University; nearly all our institutions are frequently criticized; faculty, curriculum, clubs, Halls, and Senior Council. Certainly there is no lack of dissatisfaction, but we feel that complaints should be more openly expressed. For if Princeton is to maintain its position as a great American university, it is imperative that its members should frankly discuss their problems, and thus endeavor to solve them. We therefore urge that everyone who has suggestions to make concerning the welfare of Princeton will not hesitate to express his opinions by communications to this paper."

The ideas of this article from the Princetonian hit the nail on the head so squarely that it would be a shame if we neglected to apply them to our own case. The Concordiensis knocks occasionally, but never does it do so without the spirit at least of reform. And as this other paper, it goes further and asks for more contributions expressing opinions upon the conduct of our college life. Although the Forum column has become a recognized part of this paper, it is with difficulty that articles are secured for it.

SPORTS AGAIN.

As Union is a comparatively small college, every available man is urged to develop athletically. But that is by no means the only reason for the constant attempt to start such minor sports as swimming and hockey. Every man is to have his chance! For this reason the recent movement to inaugurate inter-class swimming meets is received enthusiastically. Perhaps next year Union as a college may be represented in this sport as it was two years ago. If this be so, Downs will have scored a triumph.

If one pauses a moment to consider the major sports, basketball and baseball, he will feel a pride in the accomplishments of Hal Scoby's team and he will feel decidedly uneasy about the prospects for Bill Friday's. We shall have a new coach and we shall not have Gene Hummer and Jenks. Not for a moment are we anxious about the final outcome, but nevertheless, we realize that it is time for every baseball player to think and act.

THE FORUM

To the Editor:

On January 15th, I contributed an article to your columns on the Freshman banquet, as a criticism of the turn that it has taken in recent years. This was replied to in a later issue by another student.

The statement was made that the banquet is given in honor of the two upper classes, and for this reason should not be a purely Freshman affair. The writer of this article denies that such was or is the original purpose of the banquet. Are all underclass affairs in honor of the upper-classes, or for the purpose of arousing true spirit among the classes concerned? The banquet should purpose to establish a greater class feeling among the Freshmen themselves.

He further states that protection of the upperclass men has been denied to the Freshman since 1907. This was denied in 1913 when the present Senior class were Freshmen.

I still hold that the expense of taking men to this banquet is a great set-back to the first year men. If the upholder of the other side is a fraternity man, he will not deny that all men in the Houses are "the guests" of the poor Freshman.

This matter is fast becoming so threatening to the existence of the function that some steps should be taken by the Terrace Council to remove the evil.

Signed TOR.

Preliminary lessons consisted in newspaper reading. At the next sessions more advanced work will be taken up, and a general grading process instituted. The more able pupils will study civics, and the others American History in short writings easy to understand and pronounce.

These classes are held in addition to those already started at the Locomotive works, and which have thus far met with great success.

The entire project is in charge of Irving M. Day. Classes are held Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon at the Locomotive works and on the same evening at Silliman Hall.

A meeting of the teachers of the English to Foreigners classes will be held Sunday at 3 P. M. in Silliman Hall. This meeting is of special importance. Every teacher is requested to be present.

LACK OF BLANKS IS HAMPERING COMMITTEE

System of Red, White and Blue Camps to be Inaugurated at Plattsburg

The Defense League is being greatly hampered by the failure to arrive of the enrollment blanks for this summer's training camps at Plattsburg. For the present the work of the league will be limited to talks by league members who had training experience at Plattsburg last summer. Interest will be somewhat difficult to arouse until the blanks which the newer members of the league are to sign are in the hands of the committee in charge. Dr. Hale is at present doing everything in his power to hurry the delayed blanks along. Meetings of the league are now being held every Monday night at the Edison Club, to which all those interested are invited. As soon as the snow goes off there will be instruction in the form of tactical walks in and around the city.

It is understood that the organization of the Plattsburg camps will be somewhat different this summer. Instead of having three camps, to any one of which newly-arriving men are assigned, the camps will be styled the red, the white, and the blue. Only men finishing the course of training in the latter camp will be given officers' commissions in the event of war. A promising recruit will, however, be given an opportunity of being promoted from the red camp, to which he is first assigned, to the white and thence to the blue. On leaving the blue camp the recruit is made a member of the United States Reserve Army.

The Legend of the Freshman Cap

On a memorable morning years ago Schenectady maidens were astonished to see a number of young men wearing little caps brilliantly colored with garnet and green.

They thought, perhaps, that a circus had come to town—for they could not know that the lordly sophomores of "Old Union" had ordered every freshman to wear a cap—a badge which would distinguish him from the boys of the town.

"Let us set them apart by means of a funny cap," the Sophomores had said, "and when they have acquired the college 'tongue' in manners and apparel they may lay these caps aside."

So much for fact and theory in the past.

Today the freshman cap serves only as a mark of dignity.

It is no longer necessary to "distinguish" the freshman artificially because he has not assimilated the college "atmosphere."

Today with a little taste and observation he may clothe himself with all the careful "touches" of the most fashionable senior.

College tailoring is largely responsible for this, and Hart, Schaffner & Marx are the recognized tailors of the college world.

Their Varsity Fifty-Five suits are the last word in fashion. From collar to pants' cuff they are representative of the style thought in university life.

Be sure that you have seen H., S. & M.'s new fabrics and styles before you purchase your new Easter suit.

For they'll help you a lot in keeping up your status as a college man.

CHI PSIS & PHI GAMMS
LEAD IN TWO LEAGUES.

The past few days have brought about several changes in the standing of the teams in Division I of the Bowling League. Psi U. took two out of three games from the Delta Phis and Chi Psi took three games from Phi Delta Theta. This puts Chi Psi at the head of the league with Delta Phi a close second. In Division II Lambda Chi Alpha took two games from Beta Theta Pi and the third game was tied. Lambda Chi Alpha won on the play off. Phi Gamma Delta still leads this division with Lambda Chi Alpha second. In all probability the winner of the division will be settled when the Phi Gams and Lambda Chis bowl on Monday.

Haubner and Comstock have the highest single games and also the highest totals for the three games. Chi Psi has the high match game of 878 and the high total for three games of 2407.

TRACK MEN ARE DEVELOPING FORM

So far in track very little has been done in the way of speed and endurance tests. The most apparent need is to develop form. For this purpose, an interclass meet was instituted Friday afternoon in the gymnasium to inure the runners to competition. The chief events were the 40 yard dash and 40 yard hurdle and shot-put.

WED. AND FRI. DAYS FOR

The men whose endeavors have started interclass swimming are greatly pleased with the interest which has been manifested already. Practice is held every Wednesday and Friday afternoon in anticipation of the interclass contest at the end of the month.
