Boynton of Williams too Much

MANY FUMBLES MADE.

Travis Smashes Through for a Touchdown in Second Period, Almost Tying Score.

Union lost to Williams last Saturday on Alexander Field by the score of 13-6. The entire Williams attack and defense can be summed up in one word—Boynton. The fast quarterback defeated the Garnet eleven almost single-handed, as he intercepted a pass for the first touchdown and carried the ball for all the distance covered by the Purple squad for their second touchdown, with the exception of the forward pass that completed the last few necessary yards.

He also cut off Union's final bid for the game when he cut across the field and stopped Corky after the fast captain had cleared the rest of the defense. Boynton was aided to no small extent by Strong and Brown, the speedy wings of the visitors.

For Union the honors were more evenly divided. Travis, Captain Moynihan and Hochuli showed to the greatest advantage, but Jones showed well in the interference.

The teams were very evenly matched if one left out Boynton, and the Union line-backs were of greater power than their opponents. Both sides showed a strong tendency to fumble at important points, and Union men missed many more tackles than they should have done. These faults are ones that must be done away with, and Murray is determined that the Amherst game will tell a different story.

The stands were well filled with supporters of both elevens when Strong kicked off to Moy-

The first campus meeting of the year, held last Friday evening in the gymnasium, was a big success considering the inclemency of the weather. There were about 250 students present and enthusiasm ran high.

Captain Moynihan, the first speaker, asked for the support of the student body along the sidelines. He said that the team was going to put all the fight they had in them in the Williams game and he hoped that they would be backed up by the bleachers.

Professor McKean commended the team on the endurance displayed in the St. Lawrence game. He said that the appearance of power was a mighty weapon, and he urged that nerve and fight be shown to the last moment, for to make a strong finish should be the ideal of every athlete. He brought in Battalion—"Gen'l Order

No. 1" Not Official Approval.

At last Friday's drill Lieutenant-Colonel H. J. Goldman organized the college battalion into four companies, designated as Company A, Company B, Company C and Company D. The following students were appointed cadet officers and non-commissioned officers of the four companies:

Cadet Captain H. A. Towne, adjutant of the battalion and commanding Company A.

Cadet Captain H. A. Calkins, commanding Company B.

Cadet Captain J. H. N. Potter, commanding Company C.

Cadet Captain E. R. Slade, commanding Company D.

Cadet First Sergeants:

Company A.—P. Hoag.

Company B.—W. L. Kennedy.

Company C.—B. T. Taylor.

Company D.—C. H. Underwood.

Cadet Sergeants:

Company A.—F. W. Reynolds, H. V. D. Gulick, A. W. Hendrickson.

Company B.—R. R. Faust, A. H. Newman, E. J. Macfarlan.

Company C.—E. J. Griswold, A. B. Dougall, D. F. Beekman.

Company D.—A. C. Brockway, G. F. Mosher, A. J. Preston.

Saturday the government inspector visited the college and looked over our facilities for an R. O. T. C. Up to date he has not rendered a report. In case official recognition is forthcoming a physical examination will be necessary for all those signing up for military drill.

General Order No. 1 read to the battalion at Friday's drill by Adjutant Towne and stating that a section of the R. O. T. C. was thereby established at Union College, is not to be interpreted as meaning that the official recognition of the U. S. Government has been bestowed on the battalion. According to Dr. Hale, chairman of the faculty committee on Military Instruction, that order was merely Col. Goldman's method of organizing the battalion.

TRAINING CAMPS OPEN IN JANUARY

2490 Men to Receive Officers'
Training at Camps in South.

(From Daily Princetonian.)

Plans for the third series of army officers' training camps were announced last Friday by Brigadier General Henry P. McCain, Adjutant General. These camps will start on January 5, 1918, and will continue for three months. They will be open to enlisted men of the regular army, national guard and national army, and to graduates and undergraduates of the following selected colleges, universities and military schools: Princeton, Yale, Harvard, Cornell, Williams, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Pennsylvania Military College and New York Military Academy.

The number of college men admitted will be limited to 2,490 and the balance of the enlistment for the camps appointed from enlisted men in some branch of the service. Men trained in these new camps will be appointed to the line instead of to staff places. Officers for the staff will be trained in separate schools. The graduates from the camps will be listed as eligible for commissions as second lieutenants, and will be commissioned as vacancies occur.

Graduates and undergraduates of the eligible institutions must be between 21 and 31 years old on January 5, 1918. Applications received after December 1 will be considered. Candidates must apply on the blanks provided for the purpose and must forward the completed application to the Instructor of Military Tactics in the institution of which the applicant is a member or from which he has graduated.

There is to be one camp located in each regular army, national

ARE YOU DOING YOUR BIT IN COLLEGE?

There are all kinds of slackers, some are just slack and then others are the real kind. The former class seems to have an enormous following this year in college. A great many men seem to take it for granted that things on the hill are going to be dull and do all in their power to make them so.

In college a certain number of men seem to do all the work and these same ones are always ready to put "pep" into this or that and add their bit. Then there are the fellows who have a passive interest and still others with little or no enthusiasm whatever. No doubt these classes will always be found, but why have the last two so many followers now when every real man has a duty to his country, his college and himself?

It is not only necessary for the welfare of the nation that colleges should live but it is also of importance that each college man should keep himself well fitted to serve his country's needs. Therefore above all else we should support our college activities which not only develop ourselves but add strength to our alma mater.

We hear continually calls to uphold one activity or another. There are more opportunities than men to fill them, but it is not because we lack the material but because we lack interest enough to forget our own selfish and lazy ideals. When a fellow gets the idea that he hasn't time for this or that, he will probably never find time to do anything but to live along in the same old rut.

Perhaps it may seem that if one gets his lessons every day he is developing into a well rounded man. He is doing this to a certain extent but it is one-sided. Character, personality, initiative and many other necessary qualities are brought out by coming into contact with the life and affairs of the college. Physical endurance also is vital to success in the whirl of the twentieth century. Why then is it that so many men carelessly throw away the very chance they have of seeing what is in themselves?

It has been said that life is what you make it and the same is true of college. It is the duty of everyone to make more of college life. Don't decide yourself whether you are well fitted to try out for an activity but if you have a liking for the work, just work, and you will get there. At the same time you will be doing something for yourself, your college and its welfare.

DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP.

Customs of all kinds are hard hit in these stirring times of war and here at Union College customs sacred to the memories of the alumni are bravely struggling for their existence. Shall we, the undergraduates of this institution, into whose hands the task of preserving these sacred customs has been intrusted, allow them to perish, to pass out of our college even in such times as these? It takes hard work to keep them, but they are necessary for the carrying on of the year's programme and as we are not slackers let us carry on the work as those who have to fight for their country would wish us to do. Let us make them bigger successes, tributes to those in France, showing them that we are doing our bit in helping this phase of college life.

Stand by the guns, boys, don't give up the ship—preserve our customs and give us our Sophomore Soiree and Junior Prom.

TWO DINNER-DANCES START AUTUMN SEASON

The autumnal social season opened last Saturday night with house dances given by the Psi Upsilon and Phi Gamma Delta fraternities.

The party at the Phi Gamma Delta House consisted of a supper served after the Williams game followed by dancing and light refreshments. The dance was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John Burwell on this city, Capt. and Mrs. Collins of Panama, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witt of Chicago. Among the out-of-town guests were the Misses Marion Putison, Pauline Meeker, Mildred Schuldt, Sarah Clifford, Irma Hoag, Mary Becker. There were also two or three men from Williams. Music was furnished by Pantin. In all about fifty people enjoyed the affair.

At the Psi Upsilon House about the same program was followed out, dinner after the game and then dancing and refreshments. The dance was chaperoned by Mrs. George W. Van Vranken and Mrs. Willis T. Hanson of this city. Lewis's Harmony Orchestra of the Fort William Henry Hotel, Lake George, provided the music. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Brunton, Mrs. Weed, and the Misses Adele Chandler, Jane Connor, Katrina Jaggert, Marie Gregory, Edith Quail, Esther Beach, Emily West and Alma Hulsapple.

ENGLISH CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FRIDAY NIGHT

At the first regular meeting of the English Club held Friday evening the following officers were elected for the coming year: Dr. E. E. Hale, president; Dr. Stanley P. Chase, honorary secretary; and Harold L. Cook '18, secretary. Dr. Hale read a paper entitled "The Present Generation," in which he treated the changes in life and manners observed by him during the past thirty years.

At the next meeting two members from the Senior Class will be elected to succeed Theodore de C. Palmer ex-'18, and Gibson Carey ex-'18.

DEARTH OF PLAYERS SILENCES BAND

The band was unable to play last Saturday at the game because of a lack of men. Ten men of last year's band are not in college this year and only four new men have been obtained to fill their places. Tuesday rehearsals at 7:30 in Silliman Hall will be continued, for a time at least, in the hope that enough men will come out to make it possible for the band to play at the remaining athletic contests.

RALPH S. TRAVIS.

Ralph S. Travis is a man whose play Saturday against Williams was a climax to years of preparation. When he first came to Union he was captain of his class team and in the annual games with the Sophs he showed the beginnings of the skill that is his today. Steady work during his Sophomore year earned him a place on the varsity squad, and his Junior year found him on the varsity as a regular. This year his work is much better than ever before and his fighting spirit will make him one of the most valuable men on the Garnet eleven. Travis is a man who does his best work against odds, and the harder the game in which he is playing, the more he stands out. Columbia, N. Y. U. and Springfield, besides our old rivals, R. P. I. and Hamilton, are before him yet and he should be better each game.

Travis is also a baseball player of no mean ability, and so we elect him to the roll of Union's distinguished athletes for his all round work but mostly for his spirit and his loyalty to the old college.

GAME SATURDAY

Lieut. Wilfred M. Rosekrans '17, last year's captain of football, and Lieut. John W. Upp '17, were present at the Williams game last Saturday.

Lieut. James B. Mudge ex-'18 was on the campus over Sunday. He is now stationed at Syracuse.

out other points which were necessary for success in any game.

Paul Murray next made an appeal for more football material. He also suggested means by which every man could help the team. He declared that over 25 men had ceased coming out since their first practice. Dr. Macomber also spoke along the same line and emphasized the necessity of supporting varsity athletics.

Hochuli '18, Travis '18, Hanley '20, Jones '20, Speer '20, Gregory '21 were among the members of the squad who spoke.

JUNIORS TO CONSIDER
PROM WEDNESDAY

There will be a meeting of the Junior class Wednesday noon in the chapel. The question of having the Junior Prom will be thrashed out at this time. Matters pertaining to the Garnet will be talked over and McGarty, the business manager of this year's book, will tell of some of the features he expects to run.

MANDOLIN CLUB MEETS.

After the campus meeting last Friday evening the Mandolin Club held its first regular rehearsal. On account of the weather only a few men came out. There is a great deal of material about the hill and everyone who can play any suitable instrument is urged to come out. Edward M. Cameron '18, manager of the Musical Clubs, is planning a good schedule and has hopes of a New York trip Thanksgiving vacation. The next rehearsal will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

DUNN '18 RETURNS
TO COLLEGE THIS WEEK

Harold Dunn '18 has been released from service in the aviation corps. He returned to his home in Schenectady Friday, October 5, and will re-enter college this week.

* GOOD MORNING, JUDGE. *

We must admit that our five senses of the comme il faut, the on fait, the badinage, the apropos, and the pomme de terre were severely shocked by this in a recent Concordy: "Quick as a flash on the basketball court, his speed has made him one of the best third basemen..." As we remember the game played in the days of our youth, we didn't have any basemen on our basketball court.

I WEEP FOR HIM.

I weep for him who has to get up
At five o'clock in the morning
And drag three hundred yards of white canvass
Across the dew-wet sod of Alexander Field.

I weep for him who every afternoon
Doggedly slaves for thirty Garnet-jerseyed
Generally unshaved warriors,
Stripping the field with sticky
white lime

Or slowly sopping up the puddles
Left by last night's rain,
Perhaps unpacking lockers
Or looking for a missing football.

I weep for him who puzzles
sadly
Half the night to find a shortage
Of a dollar thirty-five
In the day's gate receipts,
And dreading two-fingers off
Upon some Senior's Underwood
A finger-marked, misspelled report

With the figures on the wrong lines.

I weep for him who at the meeting
Of the board next February
Might have been elected assistant manager

If he could have gotten one more vote.

Figuring his time at five cents an hour
He has done twelve dollars' worth of work.

Perhaps they will give him an aUa.

Tush, tush, we fear we are becoming a bit pessimistic, but no doubt what Electra, who serves us with the 65c steak special as we bask in the aesthetic atmosphere of the Old Rose Room, says is true: namely, that this sedentary life is provocative of gloom. Electra expresses it in diction more obtuse and excessively hyperbolic, thusly: "How can you stand sitting so much?"

GILLESPIE SOCIETY TO ELECT OFFICERS TUES.

The Gillespie Society will hold its first regular meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Engineering Building, room 106, to elect officers for the coming year.

John J. Beattie '18 who was called out a few days ago in the naval reserve, spent the week-end on the campus. He is a second class seaman and is stationed at the New York Naval Militia Armory, 52nd Street, Brooklyn. Because it won a competitive drill his company was given a leave of absence over the week-end.

nihan. Union had chosen the wind, and Corky ran the kick back 20 yards. A line plunge was tried and Travis then took the ball for a 15-yard run around right end. Union fumbled but Myers recovered the ball and it was Union's first down. Moynihan was cut down for a loss of a yard on a wide end play and then tried a forward pass.

Boynton here made the feature play of the game, when he intercepted the pass and ran through a broken field 60 yards for a touchdown, shaking off four tacklers. Strong kicked the goal. This was two minutes and thirty-four seconds from the first kick-off.

When play was resumed, Jones received Strong's kick but was dropped in his tracks. Hanley hit the line for 5 yards and Travis added 3 more. After Moynihan had failed to gain, Jones kicked to Stearns who was downed on Williams' 40-yard line.

After being checked without gain, Stearns took the ball through the line for 7 yards, and Boynton tried an end run with no success. Krieger made distance enough for a first down around left end. Dayton fumbled on the next play and Union recovered the ball. Union now started a series of line bucks. Travis went through tackle for 3 yards and was stopped without gain on his next attempt. Moynihan decided to kick, and Jones kicked to Stearns on Williams' 45-yard line.

After a series of short end runs Boynton carried the ball 10 yards for a first down, and after Stearns had made 5 around left end Boynton repeated for 15 more, bringing the ball to Union's 20-yard line.

Here the Garnet team braced well and held the Purple for four downs without a yard gain. On Union's first play Jones, after a gain of 10 yards, fumbled and Williams recovered the ball. The play was then first down on Union's 25-yard line, with four minutes of the period left. Krieger failed to gain and Boynton attempted a forward pass which Travis intercepted and was downed on Union's 4-yard line.

Travis and Moynihan advanced the ball to Union's 10-yard line, when the period ended. The play was Union's fourth down.

The second period opened with Jones' punt to Boynton on Union's 35-yard line. Boynton fumbled on Williams' first down, and the ball was recovered by Hanley on his own 40-yard line. After Moynihan and Travis had made small gains, Corky carried the ball around right wing for 15 yards, and Jones made 3 more on a delayed pass. Short gains by Travis through the line and a play at center by Moynihan made Union's required distance for first down. Two plays by Moynihan and Travis netted 10 more, and Travis made 9 yards on three tackle plays. Moynihan made first down and then Travis made a smash through guard for Union's touchdown.

Jones missed the goal from a slight angle and the score stood, Williams, 7; Union, 6. Union's score came after eight minutes of play.

Hay kicked to Boynton who was dropped by Coit. Williams lost five on a recovered fumble and then Boynton fumbled again, Travis falling on the pigskin. The line battering campaign was opened again, and two plays by Travis coupled with a plunge of a yard by Moynihan made first down. Jones made a first down with a 10-yard end run and Travis bucked the line for 2 more. Time was called with the ball in Union's possession on Williams' 25-yard line.

This period was featured by Boynton's great broken field running and the line bucking of Moynihan and Travis. During this half the work of the Union line was superior to Williams', while the Purple showed an advantage in open play.

Williams started with a dash when the third period opened, and great work by Boynton resulted in another score.

Stearns received the kickoff and made 10 yards before he was downed. Boynton swept around the end for a 10-yard gain, and after Dayton had lost 3 yards, the shifty quarterback shot a pass to Dayton for first down. Boynton made 5 yards around end, and Stearns was stopped without gain. Boynton carried the ball through tackle for 3 yards, and in the play Coit was hurt and Bellinger substituted. The ball was now on Union's 10-yard line and again the defense stiffened. Two runs by Boynton were stopped without a gain, and the quarterback then shot a neat pass to Brown for the touchdown. Boynton kicked out to Strong, who failed to kick the goal. Score—Williams, 13; Union, 6.

Strong kicked off to Lehman who was stopped without material gain. Two line plunges by Travis netted 6 yards and Hanley kicked to Boynton. Williams failed to complete a pass and Moynihan intercepted a second attempt and ran 30 yards. Travis failed to gain, and Moynihan carried the ball in two plays for a first down. Travis made 4 yards and then Williams was penalized 5 yards for offside play, the only penalty of an unusually clean game. Travis made 6 yards on three downs and Moynihan failed to get the remaining 4 for a first down. Boynton made a yard and Radley lost 2 on end runs. Strong was hurt and Carrick put in in his place. Boynton carried the ball to midfield as the period ended.

Union held for downs and Travis and Moynihan hit the line for small gains. Jones was nailed behind his line for a loss of 12 yards. Hanley kicked to Radley. Williams failed to complete a pass and Radley lost 3 yards on an end run. Boynton kicked to Moynihan on Williams' 38-yard line. Jones made a first down with an end run. Moynihan and Travis made another first down.

Hanley hit the line for a 3-yard gain and Travis added his bit. Brown was taken out and Collins went in. Jones and Travis made 8 yards. Moynihan made a wide end run, bringing the ball within striking distance of the goal. A forward pass was next attempted but Boynton intercepted it and kicked to Moynihan. The ball was Union's on Williams' 20-yard line when the game ended. Williams, 13; Union, 6.

The summary follows:
