MUSICAL COMEDY

ENTIRE SUCCESS

"Come to Balmy Land" With its Humor and its Melodies Pleases Everyone.

THEATRE FILLED.

Talbot, Rowe, Beckett, Hulshizer, Bowman and Williams Lead in Songs.

Schenectady playgoers as well as the college students were given a most welcome surprise last night by the presentation of "Come to Balmy Land," by the Union College Dramatic Club. The authors—Mandeville and Knight—the cast, the directors and the musical conductor deserved the sincere applause which their work brought forth. The book and lyrics were both clever and original and the music both harmonious and catchy. The waltz theme "For You Alone" was especially fine, and "Oh, Hawaii" and "Travels and Dreams" were particularly well received. Talbot, Rowe, Hulshizer, as "Gladys," Beckett, as "Gloria," and Law Bowman led the songs in a most creditable manner, as their many encores illustrated. The quartet of Fritz, Vernon, Ned and Alex was certainly exceptional, and Ned with the Ukulele Club was very warmly received.

The curtain had to be raised five times after the final act before the audience would leave. Loud cries of "authors" filled the house for several moments before Mandeville and Knight appeared in the lower box.

Stein deserves especial credit for his excellent work as conductor of the orchestra. The dramatic personae were as follows:

Edward Dale (Ned), a composer — George C. Rowe, Jr.
Frederic Steele (Fritz), a would-be artist — Sidney W. Talbot
Peters, their butler —
David Winnie Sherwood
Mr. Dale, Ned's father —
Law W. Bowman
Gladys Farrel, a model —
James E. Hulshizer, Jr.
Vernon Comstock, a poet —
Harold J. McGee
Theodore Vane (Ted), a sculptor — L. Prescott Brown
Alexander Kruger (Alex), a critic — Hugh J. Williams
Gloria Quale, a singer —
Guy H. Beckett
Grace Fischer, a dancer —
David F. Chapman
A Maid — Charles F. Beattie

TAMSETT RECOMMENDED TO ATHLETIC BOARD; FAVORABLE ACTION IS EXPECTED TODAY

The man who will fill Fred Dawson's position as baseball coach for this spring is practically selected. He is Jimmy Tamsett, of Albany, former manager of the Albany club of the State League and for some years one of the cleverest infielders in ball-dom.

At a meeting Friday of the executive committee of the Athletic Board, which was attended by George Daley, of the New York World and Bill Smith, a former Union baseball and football star, representatives of the committee of the alumni on undergraduate affairs, Tamsett was endorsed strongly. The confirmation of their choice by the whole Athletic Board, to meet this afternoon, is expected. Professor Opdyke secretary of the Board, said after Friday's meeting that he thought the appointment of the former Albany manager would surely ensue.

Jimmy Tamsett enjoys the reputation of having as much knowledge of inside baseball as any man in the state. He has had a wide experience as a player, as a team manager and as a coach. He broke into professional baseball in 1899, when he joined the Rome Club, of the State League. Two years later he was with the Albany team of the same league. In 1903 he played with Indianapolis. Birmingham of the Southern League claimed him the next year and the following season he signed up with Bowling Continuing With Increasing Interest in the Games.

There have been no new developments in the two bowling leagues this week which change the standings of the leading teams. Chi Psi still leads Division one with an average of .917 and Phi Gamma Delta heads Division two with an average of .833. The D. Us took two games from the Alpha Deltas; the Psi Us took two games from the Phi Delta Theta team; and the Chi Psi team won three games from the Sigma Phis. Interest in the games has been increasing steadily.

D. U. GIVES DANCE TO ITS FRESHMEN

Last evening Delta Upsilon gave its annual Freshman Dance at which about thirty couples were present. The chaperones for this were Mrs. Robert Landon, Mrs. H. H. Murdock, Jr., and Mrs. De Witt C. S. Smith, all of whom are Schenectadians.

The music was rendered by Paul Fay of Amsterdam.

FRESHMEN LEADING IN INTERCLASS TRACK

Hughes '20 Is Individual Star—Northrop and Morrison Also Do Well.

The Interclass Track Meet which was held in the gymnasium yesterday resulted in a decisive victory for the Freshmen. The final result was 1920, 33; 1919, 7; 1917, 6 and 1918, 0. On total points for the two meets 1920 has 49; 1917 has 16; 1919 has 9 and 1918 has 8. The results of these track meets show what promising material there is in the Freshman Class.

There are a great many entries in each event, but there should be more as many men, who formerly were out for track, do not come around to these meets. For the shotput, Girling, L. Bowman, Hay, Young, Witner, Hodgekiss, Hughes and Beekman are out; for the high jump, Tell, Hoag, Frasier, Gillespie, Curtis and Philip; for the dashes, Kinney, Barlow, Titus, Tiel, Hughes, Harvev, Moore, Northrup, Morison and Gans; for distance runners, Streeter, Gans, Hance, Barlow, Girling, Kinney and Moore; and for the hammer throw, Bowman, Beekman and Marks.

The results of yesterday's events are as follows:

12lb. shotput: Hughes '20, Girling '17, Witner '20, Young '20 distance 37ft. 11 1/4 in.; high jump: Hughes '20, Tell '19, Curtis '20, Young '20, Barlow '20 tied, height 5ft. 2 in.; 40-Yd. low hurdles: Hughes '10, Morison '17, Barlow '20, Northrup '19, tied for 3rd place. Time 5 2-5 seconds; 40-Yd. dash: Northrup '19, Hughes '20, Girling '17, Morison '17. Time 4 2-5 seconds; half-mile: Streeter '20, King '20, Kinney '20; Gans '20 and Carr '20, tied. Time 2 min. 16 2-5 seconds.

LAST GAME OF THE SEASON IS TO-NIGHT

Unusually Strong R. P. I. Quintet Has Had Great Success This Year.

LINE-UP CHANGED

Hal Scoby and Jimmy Mudge Are at Their Original Places As Forwards.

The basketball team received its last words of instruction from Fred Dawson at practice Thursday and has since been taking matters easily before the last game tonight. Undoubtedly both the playing and spirit displayed will be of the highest order. R. P. I. games are hard anyway, but this one is bound to break all precedent.

Quoting from "The Polytechnic" with regard to Union's defeat, "The 'varsity came through with a clean-cut victory over Union to the tune of 33-18." The Garnet are highly resolved that if it lies in the power of mortal man to do so, this time the tables will be turned. But Union is not the only one to be defeated. The Trojans have defeated N. Y. U., one of the fastest college teams in the country. St. Lawrence fell by 31-19 and Manhattan 48-15."

But Union has made remarkable progress since that time. It is safe to say that the two teams are about evenly matched. Thursday night a new combination was worked out in practice which will give the team its maximum playing power. The veteran forwards, Scoby and Mudge are again in their original positions as forwards. Scoby is reported to be a whirlwind there and the fastest man on the team in advancing the ball. Jimmy Mudge also has been doing wonderful passwork and repeatedly has been breaking up the floorwork of the opposing team. Yovits has made some excellent shots and has played his hardest. During this week both he and Moynihan showed improvement and were in every

"NATIONAL SERVICE"

A magazine called "National Service" should be seen and read at least once by every college man. Already this monthly publication has been issued twice, once in February and once in March, together with a Training Camp Supplement which is of especial interest to all Plattsburg men. As the following extract will demonstrate, the purposes which "National Service" has are identical with those expressed by the student body when it voted respecting the Chamberlain Bill.

"National Service" has had its origin in the widespread and growing interest of civilians in military affairs. The technical journals of the services, excellent as they are, inevitably reach only a limited constituency and cannot entirely supply the need for correct military information, which is felt by a steadily increasing body of citizens. It will be one of the main purposes of National Service to supply its readers with facts in convenient form concerning our military situation."

It is from beginning to end an exponent of the cause of universal military training as opposed to the inadequate, unjust, and "undemocratic" volunteer system, which at present affects about one per cent. of our male citizens of military age. In doing this there is no doubt whatever that it is representing a very large body of citizens, including the student element. And as a demonstration of fairmindedness, after asking to have opinions expressed in a Contributor's Column, it adds, "We shall be open to conviction and be receptive to all points of view, irrespective of how radically they may differ from our own."

The particularly impressive fact about this magazine is the type of men represented by its articles. Not only are army men such as Major General Leonard Wood and Major Dorey among its contributors, but there are such others as Theodore Roosevelt, Charles W. Eliot, Sydney Brooks and Ralph Barton Perry.

No more could be said. Some of the biggest men in the country are supporting a magazine which has as its ideal the accomplishment of a momentous reform in which we believe. The thing to do is clear. Get and read "National Service."

"BALMY LAND"

Union College has, in its own estimation, risen somewhat more than one hundred per cent., for last night it trooped en masse to see a "show" which, however, in reality proved itself to be not only an elaborate production, but an uproariously lackadaisical one as well. Most of us have in the past regarded those connected with musical comedies, good ones that is, as uncomprehensible mixtures of humor and about seven kinds of art. Now we know that they are good fellows, like Mandeville and Knight, Gilbert and Sammons, and the members of the cast. Because they have produced "Come to Balmy Land" so successfully the college in appreciation wishes to say, "Here's how!"

And because dramatics are so well started, it is almost essential that henceforth this activity go on with, if possible, augmenting enthusiasm. In the years to follow we may not be able to produce our own plays, but we must produce something, something up to scratch, too, if for no other reason than because the men who have worked on this performance expect it. Perhaps there is nothing to be accomplished by harping on this subject, for the Dramatic Club will go on and its members after the successful presentation of each play will look back upon this one and say, "Here's how!"

A NEW COACH

There is not much which can be said upon this subject, for as yet the name of James E. Tamsett, upon which the Executive Committee of the Athletic Board and the two representatives of the Alumni Committee on undergraduate affairs, George Daley and Bill Smith, have passed favorably, has not yet been submitted to the Athletic Board as a whole. However, every indication seems to point to the conclusion that he will be selected.

The students on the Hill are without a doubt anxious to see this action taken. They realize the skill that Jimmy Tamsett has acquired through years of interest and work in baseball. They feel as a body that he will be successful in developing a strong Union nine.

But if it be he or be another who finally is appointed, that man

Gal played his customary aggressive game and he and Mudge have been practicing on the fifteen foot line. The coach is taking no chances on losing any precious points because of defective foul shooting.

Of the substitutes, Peaslee, Goff and Goodman seem to have the real stuff. Peaslee shows a good eye for the basket and both Goff and Goodman are playing reliable games.

The sale of tickets has been unusually large and the attendance will probably be the largest of the season. The crowd is assured and there will be dancing after the game. The players are primed and set. All that we need is the victory.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The work in the English classes for foreigners is growing constantly, and a new class started yesterday afternoon for the men in the Tank Shop at the Locomotive Works. Nearly twenty-five foreigners have registered for the class already, and the prospects for a rapid increase in registry within the next few days are bright.

This will of course necessitate new teachers, and any students who may care to have a class should see Nurie or Day immediately.

The students who have already taken classes are greatly interested in the work, and are enjoying the classes immensely. The project is a practical one and of undoubted value.

The annual election of officers of the Association for the season of 1917-18 will take place Monday evening at 8:30 p. m.

All activities in the Hall will be omitted on Wednesday evening of next week in order that all students may attend the banquet.

THREE DINNER PARTIES ON HILL LAST NIGHT

Several of the fraternities on the hill gave dinner parties last night in honor of the performance of "Come to Balmy Land" at the Van Curler.

Phi Gamma Delta, Psi Upsilon and Chi Psi are the fraternities who entertained thus. At the Phi Gamma Delta affair there were twelve guests present, with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hayden of Schenectady, as chaperons.

At the Psi Upsilon dinner, covers were laid for about twelve guests and Mrs. DeForest Weed of Ballston Spa, was chaperon. At Chi Psi lodge twenty-four guests dined. Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper were chaperons.

Delta Upsilon is planning a dinner before the basketball game tonight. About ten guests are expected.

DR. BERG TO ENTERTAIN COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

Dr. Berg has a great deal of electrical apparatus and he is going to show the members of the club some educational and interesting phenomena.

young composer, was a fine bit of dramatic art. The audience were with him constantly. Sid Talbot, as Fritz, looked his part to perfection and without doubt filled his role as successfully as anyone in the cast. These two close friends were both in love with Gloria, alias Guy Beckett, who was a girl worth anyone's devotion. Her sentimental poses and expressions, her figure and clothes in themselves nearly rendered Guy's feet dainty and his hands small.

Dave Sherwood as Peters the butler, who himself had aspirations of authorship, acted an extremely difficult part with almost consummate skill. Law Bowman as Mr. Dale, Ned's father, played the part of a very good but very human clergyman. His realistic interpretation of his part and his song, "Every Little Girlie Has a Soldier All Her Own," will not be forgotten for many a long day.

And as for the somewhat rough young lady, Jimmy Hulshizer—no description will suffice. His clothes (such remarkably pretty ones) his manners, his walk, his dance and voice were the chief amusement of the performance. "She" literally brought down the house.

Harold McGee impersonated wittily and loudly a very English and very loquacious poet, and Prescott Brown fitted well into his part of Ted Vane. Hugh Williams' excellent voice stood him in good stead in his song, "Travels and Dreams." Chapman had a practically perfect make-up in his part of Grace Fischer. Fritz, much to Ned's relief, finally decided that, after all, Grace was the girl for him. For this we can scarcely blame him, for the choice was a difficult one.

Charles Beattie, as the pretty little maid, resented stolen kisses to perfection, whereas Hawn and Fox as friends of Gladys, and Roomhower as "the army" filled the other minor parts.

The plot of the performance lent itself well to the type of comedy. The group of partially unsuccessful artists had formed a club. Both Ned and Fritz were in love with Gloria, for whom the former wrote a musical comedy. But because of Fritz's kindness to him Ned makes the artist declare the play to be his, and thus gives up all chance of winning Gloria. But fickle Fritz transfers his love to Grace and in this way concludes the plot by allowing the cast to pair off.

The short but villainous burlesque interlude in the second act intensified the interest. The comedy, however, which amused the students particularly centered around Dr. Hale. Not only does his writing resemble musical notes, but he surely has impressed his expression, "vast masses of material" on us all.

Because of the success of last night's performance the activities committee has just granted permission to give "Come to Balmy Land" in Elmira. Plans are under way for a performance either next Saturday or the following one.

Memphis, of the same league. After remaining in the south for one season more he went to Toronto, with which team he played in 1906. In 1907 he joined the Harrisburg Club of the Tri-State League, but the following year he was back with the Senators. He was made manager of the club in 1911 and continued in that capacity until 1913. From that time until his retirement from the game in 1915, Jimmy was with the Troy team, acting part of this period as manager. Tamsett knows the infield like a book. His position is shortstop, but for seven or eight seasons he played third. He also has had considerable experience at second base.

Many of the alumni will recollect that he coached the Garnet team one season, in 1900. He was coach at Georgetown for a short time, too.

1920's FIVE EASILY BEATS JUNIOR TEAM

In a fast but one-sided game on Thursday afternoon, the midget freshmen team trimmed the juniors by the decisive score of 14-4. Every member of the '20 team played a great game, not only in shooting, but also in guarding. The juniors got only one field basket during the entire forty minutes. The freshmen had excellent teamwork and passed the ball in a manner worthy of the varsity. The work of Jack Collins, the captain, and "Vard" Cantey, the diminutive center, for the freshmen shows them to be excellent possibilities for varsity material.

This game eliminates the juniors from the three-cornered tie between them, the seniors, and the freshmen which resulted at the close of the interclass basketball games. There is left only one game between the freshmen and seniors to decide the championship. This game will be played off Saturday at 3 P. M. Much keen rivalry has been exhibited by these teams and the game promises not only to be good, but to be exceptionally exciting.

CONDUCT VESPERS

Gloversville Minister Is Head of Prominent and Well-known Parish.

The Rev. Frederick L. Decker, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Gloversville, will be the speaker at the Sunday Vespers Service. Mr. Decker was formerly district superintendent of the Troy Conference, and at the present time he is a leading spirit in the affairs of that body. His pastorate in Gloversville includes one of the largest and best known churches of that vicinity.

As a man of deep thought and as an eloquent speaker, Mr. Decker has a wide spread reputation. Union is, therefore, afforded an unusual opportunity in having him lecture on the campus.

The meeting will be held in Silliman Hall at 3:30 o'clock, that is, an hour earlier than usual. A special song service will precede the address. For this and on account of Mr. Decker it is anticipated that an unusually large attendance will be had.
