BANQUET FOR SQUAD HELD AT MOHAWK

'21 Man to Head Next Year's Quintet—Yavits Toast-master.

The members of the basketball squad formally concluded the season Saturday night at the banquet given in their honor at the Mohawk hotel. Beside the first and second teams there were present also, President Charles Alexander Richmond, Prof. Howard Opdyke, Coach Hardman, and Coach Northrop.

The dinner was not devised to be in keeping with the training rules prescribed by coaches nor was the slightest indulgence in epicurian delights attended by any remorse of conscience. Coach Hardman announced that the taboo on mince pie and the deadly cigar was raised, and bade the diners go to it.

The menu:

Blue Points on Half Shell
Cream of Tomato Soup
Celery	Olives
Roast Vermont Turkey with Cranberry Sauce	Pickles

THE BASKETBALL REVIEW

The figures speak for themselves. George Daley congratulates the team and reports many commendations from other alumni.

The work of the basketball team before a team chosen perforce of the during the season just closed is worthy five men who made the trip. Syracuse of the highest commendation. Not is now the champion of the Eastern only has the team come through with League, of which Union is not a member. Otherwise the right to her title record which future players will work hard to equal.

There are some places where figures speak louder than words and this is one of them. Following is a summary of Union's basketball scores, showing eight victories with but three defeats:

	Union	Opponents
Colgate	19	18
R. P. I.	28	19
N. Y. U.	24	31
Williams	21	15
Syracuse	8	12
Williams	39	14
Amherst	26	17
West Point	21	17
Syracuse	21	16
Colgate	19	32
Amherst	18	14

Total points ----- 244 205

Such a record demands but little comment. Syracuse was defeated on her own floor for the third time in her history. West Point went down

"My heartiest congratulations on the good showing made by the Union College basketball team this year.

"Will you extend to each member of the team, if the opportunity presents, and to the coach as well, these congratulations, and tell them that their good work was greatly appreciated by many alumni of New York to whom I have talked.

"Sincerely yours,

"GEORGE DALEY."

The future of basketball at Union is bright. Graduation takes two veterans, Yavits and Beaver, but this still leaves Captain-elect Brucker, Hanley, Wilber and Rinaldi as a good beginning for next year.

TRACK AND BASEBALL MEN BEGIN TRAINING

No Dearth of Enthusiasm—Large Numbers Register in Both Sports.

The managers of track and baseball brushed the cobwebs off the lockers and got out the togs for the runners and diamond men Monday afternoon. Matty Fitzgerald met some of his prospective battery combinations in the gym at 3:30 and an hour later a very promising representation of track men presented themselves.

The weather still remains very unfavorable for outdoor work of any kind but the nets will be put up preparatory to infield work in baseball and for the time being the track candidates will be coached inside.

The first two weeks of baseball will be devoted chiefly to discovering pitchers. Holleran, '20, has shown in the past that he has some stuff and should be among the runners-up for the job. Several Freshmen have also come out and will be given an opportunity very shortly to display their talents.

Track is confronted with the proposition of converting some of the

Our Athletic Future.

The Spring drive in athletics has begun for the season of 1919. It is always a time of forecast and doubt when a team launches forth on its first two weeks of practice. The present is no exception, but it is worth noting Union teams thrive in adversity.

The basketball results for the past two years have demonstrated this fact beyond contradiction. Two years ago, with Yavits nursing a bad knee, and Jones, the only physically fit 'varsity man on the squad, matters had come to a pass where it was hardly deemed worth while to hire a coach. But the Brucker brothers in the Freshman time soon showed that "Ocky" Kuolt wasn't going to be a half-bad coach. It was also soon demonstrated that class were pretty fast boys on the floor, and to cap the climax, Captain Yavits' knee got better almost immediately. Then came Jack Collins, whose eye for the basket never failed, and with such a quintet Union put forth.

No need to relate the details. Coach Kuolt's short-pass, no-dribble game was shortly adopted by every college in the east. Union never had such a season in her history as that. C. C. N. Y. was the only victor and a subsequent victim. The Garnet registered fourteen victories and only one defeat.

The past season is a good illustration of the same thing. With only Brucker and Yavits as a nucleus, a whole new organization had to be built up. It was the end of December before any steps were taken but the material came, the team was equipped, and sent forth on less than two weeks' training. Again things came Union's way, or rather Union made things come her way. A total of eight victories from eleven games played was secured, and among the defeated, Syracuse, which now holds the championship of the Eastern League.

But so much for the past. The future presents some very interesting topics for discussion. Examination results are insufficient in quantity at the present writing for one to divine who can and who can't, but the new summer baseball and one-semester rulings offer an excellent opportunity for a display of optimism and confidence. The former calls for little discussion. Obviously such a rule is the only safeguard for Union's athletic reputation and puts her at once on a fair basis with other colleges without in the least detracting from her former efficiency in this sport.

From the standpoint of fairness, nothing can be said unfavorably of the one-semester rule. But its effects upon football next fall will doubtless be noticeable. At Union, as is doubtless the case with every small college, the success or failure of a football season is very often determined by the material which can be appropriated from the Freshman class. The new ruling removes any necessity for speculation in this respect. The possibilities or impossibilities of football men in the entering class next fall simply won't matter, at least so far as playing the 1919 schedule is concerned.

This is no attempt to throw cold water on the prospects of football next fall but merely a statement of fact. It has been remarked heretofore, that Union teams thrive in adversity. It has also been remarked that one of the noticeable features of the last basketball games of the season, was the fact that the opposing team led for at least the first half of the game. Then, by drawing from a good store of reserve, Union shot past and finished a few lengths in the lead.

So applying some of these salient features of the past to the future, it wouldn't appear that the dark clouds are at least without silver linings. One might even go so far as to say that if a little adversity will do so much good, a lot would be even more helpful, and advise another jump in eligibility rules. Maybe.

PRESIDENT RICHMOND TO ENTERTAIN FRIDAY

President Richmond will give another of his very popular recitals with the harp at 7:30 Friday night in Hanna Hall. Dr. Richmond claims to be the only college president who possesses this talent.

Those who heard him last year were delighted with the program, which consisted of a rendition of several old Scotch and English ballads dating back to the middle ages.

THE PAST AND PRESENT

Keep abreast with the times. We are not living in the stage coach decade, at which time the mentioning of flying machines would have been taken as an idle jest. In the present century you wouldn't think of traveling as one did in by-gone days. Neither would you of having your shoes repaired by the old style hand method way, if you knew the superiority in our up-to-date machine way of repairing.

The Bottom of the Keg

After passing a riotous week, we find it is now time to get the proof in for the colyum. It is difficult to arouse our scattered sensibilities, so we ask your sympathies in this attempt to amuse you.

* * *

We'll start you in with this one: Lawyer: "Is it true then, that you were the only sober man at the Freshman banquet?"

"Naw, course not!"

"Who was it then?" snapped the legat.

And then upon our slowly recovering sensibilities, this one burst with an effect similar to the breaking of a pot of red paint over a hearse. We will withhold the name of the magazine which published it for modesty's sake. Here it is:

TITHONUS.

"This echolalial sea,
And somnolent, chill, sky.
Stare, low, agony

Or howl Othy youth or sigh."

We are taking a chance that "echolalial" will get by the linotyper unchanged because, if there be one in your number who knows what it means, we would crave of him enlightenment. Webster had never seen it before so, thinking it to be a word coined from the Russian or a code-order for a Ford car, we let it pass.

* * *

There seems to be quite a coincidence between the Frosh-peerade-bonfire, and the liberality with which the sticks were handed out this term. We suppose that the next thing in logical order would be the query "Who won the war?"

* * *

Roosevelt advocated the policy of walking softly and carrying a stick, but we don't recall his saying anything about two sticks, or a stick and a failure. Whether he did or not, we are inclined to think, along with the Cynic, that perhaps Xerxes' uncle was right after all.

* * *

When the Ed. regained consciousness after reading that one, he held up an admonitory hand, so we decided to call it a day.

GAME WITH HOBART FILLS 1919 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Manager Hagar has succeeded in filling the only open date on the football schedule for 1919, with Hobart on October 18. The schedule now calls for eight games and promises to be one of the best, as well as one of the hardest which Union has faced in some time.

The new one-semester rule cuts off any hopes of what the Freshman class may bring in, and while many veterans of the last two years are still in college it is evident that some recruiting will be necessary to insure a successful season.

The schedule:

October 4—Williams at Williams-town.

October 11—Amherst at Schenectady.

October 18—Hobart at Schenectady.

October 25—Wesleyan at Middle-town.

November 1—Columbia at New York.

November 8—N. Y. U. at Schenectady.

November 15—Hamilton at Clinton.

November 22—R. P. I. at Schenectady.

TWO MORE GAMES REQUIRED FOR BASEBALL PROGRAM

With the exception of April 18 and 26 all dates on the spring baseball schedule have been filled. The program as mapped out calls for 14 games, half of which, at least, will be played in Schenectady.

The schedule as completed to date follows:

Friday, April 18, open.

Saturday, April 19 morning, N. Y. U. at New York; afternoon, Crescent A. C., at Brooklyn.

Saturday, April 26, open.

Wednesday, April 30, Army at West Point.

Saturday, May 3, Williams at Williams-town.

Tuesday, May 6, Colgate at Schenectady.

Saturday, May 10, R. P. I. at Troy.

Wednesday, May 14, Hamilton at Clinton.

Friday, May 16, Rutgers at Schenectady.

Saturday May 17, N. Y. U. at Schenectady.

Saturday, May 24, Worcester Tech. at Schenectady.

Friday, May 30, Hamilton at Schenectady.

Saturday, June 7, R. P. I. at Schenectady.

The chief feature of the post prandial was the election of George Brucker '21, a two-year veteran of the basketball team, to the captaincy for the coming year to succeed "Doe" Yavits. "Georgie" has been one of the "fighting five" and has proved himself equal to the position he now holds.

Following the election, Yavits assumed the role of toastmaster. Among those to respond were President Richmond, Prof. Opdyke, Coach Hardman, and Captain-elect Brucker.

numerous runners into weight throwers and jumpers. Douw Beekman is not coming out this season but will devote his time toward coaching in these events. While the first meet is better than a month and a half away no time will be lost in eliminating the candidates in order that several weeks of intensive coaching can be given to those who are to defend Union's title in the field.

The track schedule this year includes Williams at Williamstown, May 3, and Hamilton at Clinton, May 10. Moving-Up Day holds some interesting interclass events and May 24 will find the Garnet pitted against R. P. I. in Schenectady.
