WEATHER MAN KEEPS TEAMS FROM PLAYING

Track Team Turns Back at Troy.

NORWICH, JUNE 12

Vermont Game Thursday May Be
Friday's Last—R. P. I. Here
Saturday.

The baseball management has closed a contract with Norwich University of Northfield, Vt., for the Commencement game on June 12. Union met and defeated this team at commencement a few years ago.

The Stevens baseball team and the Rutgers tennis team came to town Saturday to meet the Union teams but the rainy weather prevented the games. The track team started for Williamstown at 8:55 according to schedule and went as far as Troy where word was received from Williams that the weather there would prevent the meet.

Ill luck has attended the track team this season. First the Hamilton meet was cancelled by Hamilton and next Trinity cancelled their meet. Then a meet with Williams was scheduled, only to have old Jupiter Pluvius put the kibosh on it. The only remaining meet is that with R. P. I. If Captain Morison goes to Madison Barracks he will not have participated in any meet.

Two Union teams will go to Burlington, Vt., this week to meet teams of the University of Vermont. Thursday the baseball team meets "U. V. M." and Saturday the tennis team tries honors with them. Saturday the baseball team meets R. P. I. on the campus.

If Capt. Friday receives an appointment to the Officers' Training Camp at Madison Barracks, as seems likely, the Burlington game will be his last.

ONE MAN MAY TAP NEW TERRACE COUNCILMEN

Five Terrace Councilors Recommended for Camp.

FORTY-SEVEN IN ALL

Most Men From '17 and '18
Among Representative Students Recommended.

One member of the Terrace Council, David F. Chapman, may have to tap all four of the new members of the Terrace Council on Moving-up Day, if the other members of the Council, all of whom have been recommended for the Officers' Reserve Training Camp, go to Madison Barracks. Dow Roof, Wilfred Rosekrans, Hal Scoby, W. Friday and Wally Girling, the remaining members of the Council, have all been recommended for the camp.

When it was realized that only one member of the Council might be left in college on Moving-up Day it was thought that it might be well to move-up Moving-Up Day to May 12, but Hal Scoby, president of the Council, said last night that such a plan was not found to be feasible and that in case the others went to Madison Barracks the job of tapping the four Juniors would fall to Chapman alone.

The following men who applied in Schenectady for admission to the Camp at Madison Barracks have been recommended for appointments:

Augur, E. B., '20; Behnken, J. F., '18; Bull, C. J., '17; Bunyan, J. B., '19; Clark, R. S., '18; DeRose, R. M., '19; Eddy, S. B., '18; Emmerling, A. G., '17; Erdman, F. W., '20; Friday, W. ## WE BOURGEOISIE.

A yellow-covered brochure entitled "War?" has come to us. This saffron publication issues from the "Collegiate Anti-Militarism League," an organization which purports to have members in thirty-six educational institutions. We are proud to say that Union is not among them.

"Now that our country is actually at war we feel it our special duty to work to prevent war from overwhelming us," announce the college men who allow their names to appear as members of this League. The way they would prevent war from overwhelming us is to disarm and allow Prussia to overwhelm us.

We shall say no more about this organization or its publication. After noticing one letter in the magazine we shall consign it to the waste basket. Its publishers have consigned themselves to the social waste basket.

One J. B. Alemany of Schenectady, who says he is a Spaniard of two years' residence in this country, writes to this League:

"I came to this city a few weeks ago and I know very few people here. I hope that by and by I will come to meet some students and I will try to put in them some of the fury against militarism that burns in me—and maybe some of them will cease to be so horribly bourgeois."

If we have not misread history the bourgeoisie have been most horrible to the ruling classes who oppressed peasants, artisans, merchants—everyone who worked for a living—and who repressed, as much as they could, liberal, progressive and advanced thinking.

"Horribly bourgeois!" Nicholas II might have said it of the Russian patriots. Metetrnich might have said it of the Count Cavour, the liberator of Italy, or of Louis Kosuth. The Bourbons might have said it of the proponents of popular sovereignty. George III might have said it of Washington, Sam Adams and Ben. Franklin.

Our Castilian friend puts us among the elect.

If he realizes his hope and by and by meets some students possibly he may be the passive party and receive some of the fury that burns in them—fury against oppression and domination and against such lily-liver'd loons as those who publish "War?"

SUUS CUIQUE ATTRIBUTUS EST ERROR.

Shame, anguish and remorse were our emotions when too late, alas too late, we discovered this in our last issue: "The stories * * * has been recalled."

For this offense we flagellate ourselves and we warn the reader, "Gently scan your brother man."
