VARSITY PRACTICES IN MID-WINTER COLD

SLEIGHING ON ALEXANDER FIELD

SQUAD READY FOR TEST

Will Be in Condition to Put Up
Its Greatest Fight

Nothing daunted by the snow and bitter cold weather which has prevailed during the last few days, the squads have been going about their daily practice with as much vim as though it were mid-September. Willing hands shoveled Alexander Field clear of snow on Tuesday afternoon so that the team might not lose any practice; for the nearness of the Hamilton game—THE game of the season—has made it imperative for the squad to keep in form. Until long after the big arc-lamps on the goal posts were lighted, the two teams worked tirelessly up and down the field, to perfect the new plays given them by Fred Dawson.

Tuesday's practice consisted of signal drills in addition to the rehearsal of these new formations. After the practice the men took their usual turn around the track.

Yesterday's practice, as well as today's, consisted mainly of scrimmages. The men on the team are doing their utmost to make Saturday's struggle another triumph for the Garnet and each afternoon finds every available man out on the field for practice.

BASKETBALL WORK STARTS IN EARNEST

Regulars and Untried Candidates
Are on the Floor Daily.

With the close of the football season Saturday the basketball team with Hal Scoby as leader, will take up regular practice as soon thereafter as feasible. Those who know are prophesying much for the team this year. With nine members of the old squad of last year as a nucleus, and with several other men from the upper-classes and a host of Freshmen showing promise, big things are in the wind.

From last year's squad Joseph Haubner, Galbraith, and Yovits have already been getting into shape on the floor with Captain Scoby. The other men, Moynihan, Mudge, Roof, Girling, Cassey and Kirkup, most of whom have been prevented from appearing on the floor on account of football, will be ready to start regular practice next week. "Tubby" Rosekrans and "Bill" Fridav have also signified their intention of coming out. Some of the likely

MUSICAL CLUBS TO CONCERT IN ALBANY

Special Car Provided for the Trip.

PROGRAM ALTERED.

Rough Spots of First Concert Are Now Smoothed Over.

Tomorrow night the college Musical Clubs will give their second concert of the season in the gymnasium of the Albany High School on Lake Avenue in that city. The clubs have been working hard during the week in an effort to eradicate the rough spots which showed up at their first premier in Ballston Spa last Friday. The program has been changed somewhat in order to make it more evenly balanced and, as the members of the clubs have been doing yeoman service in the week's rehearsing, it is safe to say that tomorrow night's performance will be much better than the first one was.

Manager Jones has arranged for a special car to take the clubs to Albany, and announces that it will leave the waiting room at seven o'clock. The concert is being held under the auspices of the Albany Teachers' Association. Dancing will follow the performance, with music by Dorlon's orchestra.

The same men will make the trip as went to Ballston last week. The personelle of the clubs follow:

GLEE CLUB.

Hugh J. Williams, Leader; Bernard R. Mausert, coach.

First Tenors—A. E. Hawn '17, A. H. Newman '18, A. B. Dougall, '19, J. R. Hartman '19, W. S. Sale '20.

HAMILTON SQUAD IS PREPARING FOR GAME

"Pete" Reynolds Driving His Men Hard This Week.

SCHWARTZ IS STAR.

Student Body Will Leave Clinton at 10:30 Saturday

Under the able coaching of "Pete" Reynolds, the Hamilton football squad has been grinding out its final week of practice in preparation for The Game. Weather conditions have been as hard on the Buff and Blue as on the Garnet workers, but there has been no let-up to the labor on Steuben Field during the past few days.

Hamilton will meet Union Saturday with an average team. It has to date won three games and lost three and will therefore count its season a success or failure according to the outcome of the battle day after tomorrow. The entire student body and many of the faculty will leave Clinton Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. They will come armed with megaphones and decked in the usual blue caps, and will do their level best to outcheer the Garnet supporters.

The Hamilton squad is in good shape physically for the game. It numbers many star players who are liable to make their presence very much felt before the game is over. Schwartz, the shiftv full-back of old renown, is again the season's star for the Buff and Blue. He is sweeping the ends this year with telling effect, and is showing up remarkably well in the running back of punts. Jones and Peck, halfbacks par excellence, have been consistent ground gainers. Pape, at quarterback, has been running the team with a fine showing of generalship. He has proved a power on the offensive, and was a material aid in gaining ground in Hamilton's game with Buffalo last week. Captain Dayton, playing at center, is the foundation of the line.

FRESHMEN READY TO MARCH IN "PEERADE"

STUPENDOUS SPECTACLE ASSURED

WILL STAGE STUNTS.

Chairman Carey Introduces Many Novelties Into Fall Pageant.

Stage Manager "Gib" Carey is ready to ring up the curtain on the Frosh "Peerade" Saturday afternoon at 12:50. At that time all the Frosh will be in costume and will form in line in front of the gym, from whence the usual line of march will be followed down Union to Nott Terrace, then down State and back to the campus. When they return a stunt will be run off on the athletic field which will transcend anything ever featured on the films as far as spectacularity goes. Chairman Carey and the committee do not care to divulge the particulars, but they say they have something up their sleeve which puts the Hippodrome performance in the shade. It is entitled "Hawaii Let Loose, or Dispersed by a Submarine."

This is not the only stunt on which Carey will base his claim for the banner "peerade." There are a multitude of burlesques on the men and manners of Union. The "College Platform" will be seen with a few special planks, surmounted by the "College God." There will be a take-off on the dollar dramatic tax and on the degenerating class scraps. "Shylock Dewey" will figure to great advantage and the demoralizing effect of soldiering on the "Faculty at Plattsburgh" will be shown

THE GAME.

On the eve of The Game we would say just one last word.

We are almost ready to take the final step up the season's ladder. At this time two nights hence we will know whether we made that step and thereby climbed up into the sunlight of success, or slipped at the last moment and fell back down upon the hard ground—which is called failure. This, all of us know, is not overrating the importance of The Game. The season is still in the balance, and Saturday's score will swing it decisively one way or the other.

The college is almost ready for The Game. Little by little, for many weeks now, we have been getting ourselves ready for day after tomorrow. Tonight we are almost tuned up for the great finale. Tomorrow night the last little touches on the pegs will make the pitch perfect.

Tonight, as we are almost tuned up, we have two facts ground into our minds. We have absolutely mastered them—nothing could shake us in these two beliefs. Firstly, we are not overconfident. We remember that R. P. I. fell hopelessly before us and that Hamilton fell before R. P. I., BUT we know that we are not 45 to 0 better than R. P. I. and that the team from Clinton will rise to a height on Saturday that it has not remotely approached before this season. And secondly, we are not scared—nor even apprehensive. We remember that in former days Hamilton has sometimes beaten us on absolutely nothing but her fighting spirit, but we know those days are past. We know that Hamilton will never beat us again without a better—a much better—team than we have. We know that the Buff and Blue will go down this year before superior football playing and superior cheering. We know it will not fall without a long cruel fight, but we know it will fall.

We have these two facts ground into our minds as we are almost tuned up. Tomorrow night, in the final turning of the pegs, one more thing will come to us, and it will make us invincible.

It will be the Spirit of Union. The Spirit of Union manifested in its supreme degree, and there is no spirit more powerful than that.

It will come over every man of us like a spell. It will roll over Alexander Field in an invisible wave, and it will wash it clean of the Buff and Blue color. It will be tempered with the mid-way feeling—mid-way between overconfidence and underconfidence. In every Union man, whether he be out on the field or in the bleachers, it will instill an unquenchable power to fight and fight until Union must win.

HAVE YOU?

Have you paid your subscription to the Y. M. C. A.?

Have you read your Bible lately; the Bible you brought from Home?

Have you spoken a cheerful word to everyone on the campus, at least once this year?

Have you entered into some campus activity yet, or have you just had the good intentions?

Have you tried to get above the level of the men who can't see any good in anything? (Excuse us, it isn't a level, it's a down grade.)

Have you been of service to the Y. M. C. A. such that if put in print it would help to fill the space left blank below?

SNOWFALL HOLDS UP TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Girling and May Are Left in Finals.

The early snow has undoubtedly put a damper on the tennis tournament, which was to have been finished this week.

Out of the fifty-two contestants who started out the first week in October, the number has now diminished to Wally Girling, '17, and Billy May, '19, for the final round of the championship. Girling was successful in trimming Wadsworth, '19, in the semi-finals by the score of 4-6, 6-1, 6-4. May also won in his match with Beckett, '18. Though the championship may not be decided, the tournament has been a decided success, and there is promise of keen competition for the varsity try-outs in the spring.

Cornell—John Lyon Collyer, '17, of Chelsea-on-Hudson, has been appointed assistant coach of the Cornell crews for the coming year. Mr. Courtney, at his own request, has been relieved of the responsibility of active coaching of the crews, but he will continue in the office of advisory coach, which has just been created. John Hoyle, who has been assistant coach of the Cornell crews for a number of years, has resigned.

The Concordiensis goes to and is read in nearly every college in the East.

NEW FRESHMAN RULES ADOPTED

Also Admonished for Lack of Courtesy to Other Classes.

At the Student Body meeting which took place last Monday, a resolution was passed to change the reading of Rule IX of the College Rules and Customs in the Freshman Handbook to the following: Freshmen are not allowed in Glenn's, the Crown, the Hofbrau, Smith's Tavern on Barrett Street, or in the Indian Room or the Cafe of the Mohawk Hotel, without being accompanied by an upper-classman. This rule goes into effect immediately.

It was also found necessary by the Terrace Council to demand the presence of every freshman at the football game with Hamilton, excepting only those who were compelled to be at work at this time. Again the Terrace Council had to admonish the Freshmen to salute the Faculty and to speak to every college man on the campus and off and to speak first. This is the fourth or fifth time this has had to be brought up in chapel and the men on the Terrace Council were tired of speaking about it.

Schedule of Readers Announced For Year.

At the regular meeting of the Classical Club held Tuesday night Marvin I. King '18 read a very interesting paper on "The Renaissance," which was followed by a general discussion by all the members.

PORTMANTEAU CO.

TO SHOW IN CITY

Noted Players at High School Next Week.

WALKER DIRECTING.

Union Students Will Be Given Cut Rates on Tickets.

The January Class of the Schenectady High School has made arrangements to bring the Portmanteau Theatre here for two performances on Friday, November 24th. It is with a great deal of pleasure that THE CONCORDIENSIS gives what publicity it can to these performances as it believes thoroughly in the mission of the Portmanteau Theatre. They are introducing all America to the better class of plays and giving them with the most up-to-date scenic and lighting effects. Their offerings are every bit as good as those of the Washington Square Players which have been playing in New York with great success for several years. Stuart Walker, who was for six years general stage director for David Belasco, is directing the company which will appear in the High School auditorium. The afternoon production will probably be "Gammer Gurton's Needle," the first English folk comedy, and the evening performance will consist of several one-act plays chosen from the following list: "The Crier By Night," "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," "The Golden Doom," by Lord Dunsany, "The Trimplet" and "The Window Garden." Tickets may be obtained from any member of the college English department or from E. W. Mandeville or H. Ralph Knight. Students are admitted for fifty cents while the general public is charged seventy-five cents.

DRAMATIC NOTES.

The Mandeville-Knight musical comedy which has been announced as "The Honey Haberdasher," has had its name changed and is now being called "Slaves of Sentiment." This musical play was written on the style of "The Only Girl." There are no opening choruses and very few ensembles. The collaborators intend, however, to rewrite it and in doing so to insert many specialties and burlesque imitations which will require ensemble work. Mr. Mandeville's book is a take-off on the new popular type of plays which are called "glad plays" and "sunshine comedies." Mr. Knight's music covers both the sentimental and the rag variety. The dramatic club plan on giving this show a production which will surpass any previous local dramatic offerings.

In order to increase the attendance at meetings, a committee was appointed to look into the matter of sending postals to each of the members of the club before each meeting.

to Vanquish Ancient Rival
BY 21-6 Score.

When one tries to figure out the "dope" for a late season game based on early season scores, he is apt to wander far afield. The following has been worked out for this week's game with Hamilton.

The only teams which both Union and Hamilton have played this year are Columbia and R. P. I. The scores of these games and their dates follow:

Oct. 7—Hamilton 14, Columbia 0.

October 21—Union 3, Columbia 0.

Oct. 21—R. P. I., Hamilton 6.

Nov. 4—Union 45, R. P. I. 0.

The scores of these games seem to indicate that Hamilton was at her best earlier in the season and that her team has remained practically static. Columbia's team has been developing this season,—she lost her first game to Hamilton 14-0, then to Union 3-0, and then held Williams, a team which defeated Union 16-0, scoreless in an 0-0 tie. Union's 3-0 victory over Columbia was virtually a greater victory than Hamilton's 14-0 score. Union's team has made decided advances during the season as her scores show. After defeats by Middlebury and Williams the Garnet team came back in subsequent games and defeated Columbia, who held Williams scoreless, and R. P. I. by a 45-0 score, whereas Middlebury defeated R. P. I. by a 31-0 score and Williams defeated R. P. I. by a 32-6 score. No immediate comparisons may be made as the result of our victory over Amherst, as she has not yet played Williams, and has met neither Hamilton nor any of Hamilton's opponents this season.

An indirect comparison, however, may be made from the following scores which tell an interesting and encouraging tale:

Oct. 14—Hamilton 7, Hobart 13.

Oct. 21—Hobart 0, St. Lawrence 12.

Oct. 14—St. Lawrence 0, R. P. I. 14.

Nov. 4—R. P. I. 0, Union 45.

According to these scores we ought to beat Hamilton 77-0.

Making reasonable allowances, however, for the dates of these games and considering the records shown in the games with Columbia and R. P. I. a conservative prediction for next Saturday would place the score at Union 16, Hamilton 0, or to extend the visitors the courtesy of permitting them to score once, Union 21, Hamilton

IAN HAY, WRITER,
ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Captain Ian Hay Beith, the noted writer and recently a soldier in the trenches in France, made a brief address to the students following chapel service this morning. Captain Beith was presented by Dr. Richmond and spoke for about five minutes. At the end of his remarks the student body gave a long yell for Capt. Beith.

up remorselessly.
Extra-mural affairs will not be slighted.

President Wilson will appear in his stellar epistolary role. Ex-President Hughes will be represented and Thomas Mott Osborne will be shown enjoying a glorious vision of the souls of second-story men made perfect.

A new departure will be taken by providing the band with costumes. Each player will be dressed as mephistopheles.

At a meeting of the Freshmen class yesterday noon Chairman Carey assigned his part to each man and appointed leaders who are to have charge of the various tableaux. The costumes have all been secured and everything made ready for 12:50 o'clock Saturday.

Oct. 14—St. Lawrence 0, R. P. I. 14.

Nov. 4—R. P. I. 0, Union 45.

According to these scores we ought to beat Hamilton 77-0.

Making reasonable allowances, however, for the dates of these games and considering the records shown in the games with Columbia and R. P. Hamilton Evidently Better In Early Season.

GARNET SHOULD WIN

Writer Shows How Union Ought to Vanquish Ancient Rival
BY 21-6 Score.

When one tries to figure out the "dope" for a late season game based on early season scores, he is apt to wander far afield. The following has been worked out for this week's game with Hamilton.

The only teams which both Union and Hamilton have played this year are Columbia and R. P. I. The scores of these games and their dates follow:

Oct. 7—Hamilton 14, Columbia 0.

October 21—Union 3, Columbia 0.

Oct. 21—R. P. I., Hamilton 6.

Nov. 4—Union 45, R. P. I. 0.

The scores of these games seem to indicate that Hamilton was at her best earlier in the season and that her team has remained practically static. Columbia's team has been developing this season,—she lost her first game to Hamilton 14-0, then to Union 3-0, and then held Williams, a team which defeated Union 16-0, scoreless in an 0-0 tie. Union's 3-0 victory over Columbia was virtually a greater victory than Hamilton's 14-0 score. Union's team has made decided advances during the season as her scores show. After defeats by Middlebury and Williams the Garnet team came back in subsequent games and defeated Columbia, who held Williams scoreless, and R. P. I. by a 45-0 score, whereas Middlebury defeated R. P. I. by a 31-0 score and Williams defeated R. P. I. by a 32-6 score. No immediate comparisons may be made as the result of our victory over Amherst, as she has not yet played Williams, and has met neither Hamilton nor any of Hamilton's opponents this season.

An indirect comparison, how-

IAN HAY, WRITER,
ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Captain Ian Hay Beith, the noted writer and recently a soldier in the trenches in France, made a brief address to the students following chapel service this morning. Captain Beith was presented by Dr. Richmond and spoke for about five minutes. At the end of his remarks the student body gave a long yell for Capt. Beith.

up remorselessly. Extra-mural affairs will not be slighted.

President Wilson will appear in his stellar epistolary role. Ex-President Hughes will be represented and Thomas Mott Osborne will be shown enjoying a glorious vision of the souls of second-story men made perfect.

A new departure will be taken by providing the band with costumes. Each player will be dressed as mephistopheles.

At a meeting of the Freshmen class yesterday noon Chairman Carey assigned his part to each man and appointed leaders who are to have charge of the various tableaux. The costumes have all been secured and everything made ready for 12:50 o'clock Saturday.

ever, may be made from the following scores which tell an interesting and encouraging tale:

Oct. 14—Hamilton 7, Hobart 13.
Oct. 21—Hobart 0, St. Lawrence 12.

Oct. 14—St. Lawrence 0, R. P. I. 14.

Nov. 4—R. P. I. 0, Union 45.

According to these scores we ought to beat Hamilton 77-0. Making reasonable allowances, however, for the dates of these games and considering the records shown in the games with Columbia and R. P. I. a conservative prediction for next Saturday would place the score at Union 16, Hamilton 0, or to extend the visitors the courtesy of permitting them to score once, Union 21, Hamilton material from the Freshman class consists of Witner, Hagar, Jones, and O'Brien. The first game of the season will be with Clarkson "Tech."

Captain Scoby urges the Sophomores and Freshmen to come out, especially as a line will then be obtained on the individuals for the class teams.
