'PUNCH' PUT IN VARSITY PRACTICE

Rosekrans Continuing Spectacular Work.

WITNER SHOWS UP WELL

Goff, Rosekrans and Roof Prove Invincible Backfield in Mid-Week Scrimmages.

Back on Alexander Field again eager for a scrimmage and brimful of enthusiasm, inspired by their victory over Columbia last Saturday, the Garnet squad has been going through their daily practice with a punch. "Tabby" Rosekrans has been "dropping them over" consistently from the 40-yard line, and his spectacular work will undoubtedly be seen again more than once before the season ends. "Hal" Witner has also been displaying plenty of "pep" and the invincible trio: Goff, Rosekrans and Roof are doing powerful work in the backfield.

"Jimmy" Mudge and "Frankie" Moynihan, who have been forced to stay out of the game on account of injuries, are rapidly rounding into shape, and, while they may not be able to play in Saturday's game, will undoubtedly be heard from soon.

Coach Dawson, upon being interviewed by a CONCORDIENSIS representative, said:

"The condition of the squad as a whole is excellent, and the enthusiasm with which every man is working is splendid. The second team men are making those on the varsity work for their positions, and line and end positions are far from being definitely fixed at present. The team continues to display the 'punch' and drive which featured its playing last Saturday."

The game with New York University next Saturday will be an especially hard one, as the New Yorkers are reported to have a strong team. Notwithstanding their 14-0 defeat at the hands of Wesleyan, last Saturday, the Violet squad is not discouraged, and expects to give Union a hard battle.

THE CALENDAR

Friday.

4:00—Underclass football game.
4:00—Ukulele Club rehearsal.

Saturday.

3:00—N. Y. U. vs. Union, Alexander Field.
Morning and afternoon meetings of Graduate Council.

'19-'20 FOOTBALL TOMORROW BOTH SQUADS ARE CONFIDENT

Both squads put the finishing touches on their work in secret practices yesterday afternoon and this afternoon's work will be of a very light nature. The week's postponement of the first game has aided the coaches greatly in rounding out finished machines from the candidates at their disposal.

Mann and Downs, who are coaching the rival squads, both are confident of the outcome of the first battle, but do not agree on the winner.

The final line-ups have not yet been chosen, but will probably be made up from men in the following squads:

1919—Hathaway, Captain, De Rose, Frees, Schnitzlein, Green, Tell, Lyman, Kelsey, Guild, Frisbee, Cassidy, Beaver, Parker, Gillespie, Cunningham, May, Garty, Little, Reed, Brind, Weinert, Glockner, Schamberger.

1920—Dougal, Wall, Marsh, Wilkes, Eisenberg, Thompson, Wilkinson, McMaster, Hoag, De Castro, Jones, Witbeck, Kidder, Fox, Hager, Jennings.

ARMENIAN FUND BEING COLLECTED

Committees Report Gratifying Results.

JUNIORS LIBERAL.

Other Classes Being Canvassed. Faculty Aiding Through Medium of Mr. Salathe.

On Monday in chapel, Dr. Richmond brought up the subject of the pressing need of the Armenians for money. Being put to a vote the proposition was readily affirmed and a committee to take charge of the campaign was appointed. The following were placed on the committee: Porter, chairman, Mr. Salathe, Girling, Loughlin, Roof, J. Taylor, Chapman, A. W. Ladd and Jamieson. This committee is working in co-operation with the national committee in New York and all the money collected from the students will go to the latter committee, whence it will be sent to Armenia.

The Junior class has been working hard and has already collected a considerable amount. After the meetings of the Sophomore and Freshman classes today the campaign will be in full swing. Mr. Salathe, collecting from the faculty, reports gratifying results.

MUSICAL CLUBS CONCERTS

Manager Jones has arranged the following schedule for the first concerts of the Musical Clubs. On November 10 in St. Mary's Hall in Ballston, on November 17, in the High School of Albany and on November 21 at the Elks' Club in Amsterdam. There will be a reception and dance after each of these concerts. Jones also has planned a long trip of five concerts during Thanksgiving vacation which will be announced later.

UKULELE CLUB IS NOW PRACTICING

New Organization to Take Place of Banjo Club.

BOOMHOWER LEADER

Rehearsals Scheduled for Wednesday and Friday Afternoons Until Further Notice.

When such melodies as "The South Sea Isles" and "Yaka Hula" pervaded the local college atmosphere, it was wisely suggested to form a ukulele club. Tuesday evenings plans for an organization of this sort were accepted, thus giving to lovers of catchy Hawaiian melodies, an opportunity to hear their favorite songs played in true Hawaiian fashion.

The new organization, with A. R. Boomhower of Psi Upsilon as leader, succeeds the old banjo club and will work in conjunction with the mandolin clubs. It will be composed of three ukuleles, two guitars, two mandolins and one cello. The music will be chiefly of the popular song-hit type, a number of selections now being transposed to suit the needs of the "uke" players. At each concert, the club will carry the air in at least one musical number, in addition to a special part of the program. Its renditions will be in the form of a medley of rag-time pieces, played from memory.

This new undertaking should make a decided hit, for it is the first of its kind on the hill. With rehearsals on every Wednesday and Friday afternoon, the club should be in the pink of condition for its first public recital.

COUNCIL TO MEET.

There will be a meeting of the Graduate Council Saturday noon and afternoon in the Council's office in Washburn Hall. This is an important meeting and a large attendance is urged.

THRILLS PROVIDED IN LEAGUE GAMES

Three Teams Eliminated to Date.

TWO GAMES CLOSE

Pass Work of Delta Upsilon Brings Easy Victory Over Kappa Alpha.

Three games have been played to date in the Interfraternity Basketball League. On Monday, the Pyramid Club defeated Beta Theta Pi; Tuesday saw Phi Gamma Delta eliminated by Psi Upsilon, and yesterday Delta Upsilon vanquished Kappa Alpha.

PYRAMIDS WIN.

On Monday the Pyramid Club team defeated Beta Theta Pi by a score of 8-4. In the first half the game dragged, and was terribly slow and eventless except for the fact that Hathaway made one astounding field goal. Both teams seemed to be lost when their opponents had possession of the ball. Time after time they would leave their men entirely uncovered. In the second half Cassidy made a brilliant goal from the field. The entire game braced up in this half and more speed and tact was shown by the players. Wallace and Goodman starred for the Pyramid Club in pass work and scoring.

Referee, Galbraith. Time of halves, 15 minutes. Goals from foul, Wallace (2). Goals from field, Hathaway, Cassidy, Goodman, Sitner, Guild.

CLOSE CALL FOR PSI U.

Psi U. defeated Phi Gam. in the second game of the Interfraternity basketball series last Tuesday. Score 7-6. The game was faster than Monday's at the start but slowed down toward the end—the result of no training. McCauley featured for Psi Upsilon. Kertscher, Jones, Brown and Contey show promise. Gorham starred for the Phi Gams. In the latter half of the game the teams showed better pass work and guarding than in the first part, but were seemingly unable to shoot baskets. Jones' goal was a pretty one as was Kertscher's and Davidson's.

Phi Gamma—Jaycox, right guard; Loughlin, right forward;

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1916

The Interfraternity Conference hit upon a happy idea in the pre-season basketball tournament. In the first place it provides athletics for the many in contrast to that for the few which is unfortunately the existing condition in college a greater part of the year. Also, it is a preliminary trials for varsity, an excellent way of eliminating the unwieldy first weeks' squad of the early season work-out.

THE SOLUTION.

It is pretty generally conceded that the habit of contracting bills and forgetting to pay them is an unfortunate one to fall into. There are bills and bills. Perhaps some far-away promise to pay the Y. M. C. A. a certain amount does not rank up in one's mind along side an unpaid room rent or board bill. Still, such a promise is just as binding, and should be just as conscience twitting.

The Y. M. C. A. is a deserving institution if we have one at Union. It cannot bowl along under its own financial steam as for instance, athletics do. Its steam comes gratis from the student body. And it needs a great deal of it.

It is easy enough to write down on a slip of paper that you promise to pay so and so much some time or other that isn't so near as to make it savor of the reality. Then it is very easy to forget all about it.

It is hardly honorable, though. At the same time, all of us would balk at being called dishonorable. And we certainly cannot say we forgot, with a Y. M. C. A. man speaking about it periodically in chapel ever since the debts were contracted.

The solution seems to be to pay up.

ALUMNI NOTES.

The New York City members of the class of 1916, fittingly selected Saturday evening, October 1st, for their first "get-together" as alumni. The class was well represented at the game, about a dozen coming from far and near to witness the contest. After the game, an informal dinner party was formed and a goodly percentage of the members met at Keen's chop house to renew acquaintances and exchange news of interest. Those at the "reunion" included H. C. Dikeman, L. E. Dunkelberger, L. T. Fletcher, A. M. Jacobs, M. H. Sternfeld, D. J. Keleher, B. P. Reed, all '16, and B. T. Loomis, '15, and I. Clemens, '17.

Others at the game were Meade Brunet, W. Spraragen, R. L. Embree, E. E. Garrison, Carrol Gunning.

SPENCER LECTURES.

The course of lectures in psychology on the Ichabod Spencer Foundation will be given this year by Professor James Rowland Angell, Head Dean, Professor and head of the Department of Psychology of the University of Chicago. The subject will be "The Makers of Modern Psychology." There will be eight lectures, the dates of which will be announced later.

MISS RUTH DRAPER TO SPEAK MONDAY

For the Benefit of French Wounded.

Miss Ruth Draper, celebrated monologist, will appear in the college chapel at eight thirty next Monday evening.

The entertainment is part of the plan to increase the American fund for the French wounded. Tickets for students will be fifty cents, all others one dollar and a quarter.

Miss Draper is undoubtedly of first rank as a monologist, and is now travelling about the country with Miss Elizabeth Perkins, secretary of the fund. Wherever Miss Draper has appeared her monologues have been highly praised, and Union students now have an opportunity of getting a clearer insight of the battle plains in France, also an instructive evening's amusement, for Miss Draper is an excellent entertainer.

Michigan leads the country with twenty alumni in Congress; Yale comes next with sixteen.

THE FORUM.

The Editors of THE CONCORDIENSIS welcome communications on any subject whatsoever, and will, so far as space permits, print them in its columns. It should be distinctly understood that the viewpoint taken in these communications is not necessarily similar to that taken by the editors. New York City,
Oct. 23rd, 1916.

I believe I am voicing the sentiment of all Union men who were fortunate enough to have seen the game on South Field, Columbia University, Saturday, (and certainly I am speaking for 1916's representation), when I say that the boys on the field did their part in true Union manner. The old spirit of persistency was there and, because of its known presence or prevalence, the Garnet supporters felt grimly confident even through the worst crisis—when Columbia tried in vain to make a touchdown on four attempts within the shadow of our goal.

And this confidence was justified by the manner in which our boys broke up the attack and, as if imbued with a new strength charged up the field with consistency and placed the ball on neutral ground at the call of time.

Through all of this and what went before, the shining light was "Tubby" Rosekrans. He was superhuman—that is all. It was his work that inspired the crowd with confidence. We knew that the spirit and determination of the team could not fail to catch their captain. Therein was the sweetness of victory. There was moral unity when physical teamwork and strength were lacking.

You may say to the team through your columns that the work of Saturday is fully appreciated by all the alumni in New York and vicinity and we wish them the highest success.

Yours for Union,
D. J. KELEHER, '16.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Y. M. C. A. announces that students who have found it necessary to drop attendance at Student Bible classes in the afternoon on account of other activities or classes, will be welcomed at a new class to meet at Silliman Hall, at 11 o'clock A. M.

It is hoped that the morning class will allow a greater number of men to enroll and thus obtain the benefits now enjoyed by other students.

D. U.'S TRIM KAPS.

Delta Upsilon easily defeated the Kappa Alpha basketball team yesterday afternoon in the third match of the Interfraternity series. The D. U.'s have, without a doubt, one of the best teams that have thus far played in the series. Their pass work is excellent. Eckler played a fast game for the D. U.'s, as did Kennedy and Nelson. Preston, Urban and Hughes featured for K. A. The game was much steadier throughout both halves than either of the previous games, and not so much fatigue was shown. The Kap's "pepp" was seemingly at a low level. They could not follow their opponents at all, and, as a result, the D. U.'s passed rings around them and won.
