UNION TO MEET HEAVY NINE THIS AFTERNOON

Harvard Defeaters Face Garnet Team Today.

HOME TEAM READY.

New York Trip Shakes Off Stage Fright—Battery is Strong.

Union baseball fans are looking forward with great enthusiasm to the Springfield game this afternoon. Since the Berkshire nine put an 8-1 victory over Harvard, diamond critics have been pricking up their ears and are expecting a hot contest when the two teams cross bats today.

Union's initial games in New York a week ago have steadied the players considerably. Captain Wittner has not in the least deteriorated from his last year's standards and continues to play a whirlwind game, both in his hitting and catching. Hanley is holding down first with the mailed fist. Lewis appears to be very much at home on the diamond and there is no doubt that Bartley will do the job after the first evidence of his stage fright wears away. Ad. Mallery played his usual consistent game at third and when Holleran's old arm gets settled down he will throw a ball that few batsmen in the country can meet.

The weather during the past week has been very prohibitive but it is doubtful if the relaxation will make any noticeable difference in the team's playing this afternoon. The probable line-ups, in order of batting, will be:

DR. KELLOGG TO RESIDE

ON THE CAMPUS

Dr. George D. Kellogg has removed from his former residence on Rosa Road and will occupy the former home of Prof. Landreth.

PROF. McKEAN HEADS SPEAKING CONFERENCE

Prof. Horace G. McKean, professor of rhetoric and public speaking at Union, was elected president of the Eastern Public Speaking Conference which met last Monday at Princeton University. About forty representatives from twenty-five of the principal eastern colleges attended. The purpose of the conference is to discuss and compare methods of teaching rhetoric. The conference will meet again next year at Princeton.

Many Lenten Festivities On The Campus

Betas, Delta Upsilon and Delta Phi Hold Easter Dances.

Several dances were held last week just before the Easter recess. The members of Beta Theta Pi, Delta Phi, and Delta Upsilon fraternities entertained on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

The Beta dance was informal and was given on Thursday evening. Pantin's four piece orchestra supplied the music and played from nine until one o'clock. The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. John A. Holland, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Starbuck.

The Delta Phi and Delta Upsilon dances were held on Wednesday evening. Pantin also played for these occasions. That of Delta Phi was given Wednesday from nine until one o'clock. Mrs. Edwin U. Allfrey chaperoned the party.

The D. U.'s gathering was formal and lasted until two o'clock. The patronesses were Mrs. Edgar Davies, Miss Mary Landon, and Mrs. William L. Kennedy.

MUSICAL CLUBS PLAY AT SKIDMORE TONIGHT

Tonight the Musical Clubs journey to Saratoga to give a concert at the Skidmore School of Arts. About forty expect to make the trip and to enjoy the dancing afterwards.

May 9 the clubs expect to go to Greenwich, where a concert will be given under the auspices of the Women's Club of that village.

GARNETS TO BE READY ON MOVING-UP DAY

There is every reason to believe that the 1920 Garnet will appear as scheduled on May 17. Manager Comstock will make a tour of the campus early next week to take orders from those who are contemplating giving Garnets as favors.

Season Opens At Even Break For Garnet

GRAD COUNCIL HOLDS SPRING SESSION TODAY

Many Appointments to be Made—Commencement Plans Under Discussion.

The Graduate Council has a heavy business program to transact at its spring meeting today. In addition to taking up some of the more important details of the commencement week celebration and class reunions, the council will elect two college trustees, one member of the Athletic Board, two alumni members of the College Christian Association Cabinet and two members of the College Union. Some variations in the usual system of campus decorations have been suggested which Mr. Waldron is to take up with the students Monday.

After the conclusion of the morning session the council members will adjourn to a special luncheon and the meeting will be resumed for a short time in the afternoon when they will witness the Union-Springfield ball game.

Two alumni reunion dinners are scheduled to take place next week. On Monday the Association of the Middle West will banquet at Chicago and on the following Friday Cleveland's alumni will dine in that city.

Allison-Foote Debate Comes Off Tuesday

After many delays, the Allison-Foote Debate will come off Tuesday, April 29. The subject to be debated is, "Resolved, That the United States Government Should Immediately Restore the Railroads to Private Control." The Philomathean Society will uphold the affirmative, while the Adelphean Society will debate on the negative side. The Philomathean Society will be represented by James Cline '20, Jerome Lovenheim '20, and Brenton Taylor '19, with McDonald King '21, as alternate. Roland LaGrange '19, Kenneth Mott-Smith '21, and Winfield Swart '19, with Edgar Snell '21, as alternate, will uphold the negative. Prof. McKean, Raymond Metzner '19, and Charles Brind '19, will preside over the ceremonies. The debate is open to the public. There will be no admission charge.

N. Y. U. Takes First Victory—Crescents Yield.

TEAMWORK GOOD.

Union Men Acquit Themselves With Credit in Both of the Contests.

The baseball team opened the season with an even break last Saturday, suffering defeat in the morning at the hands of N. Y. U. and carrying home the bacon from the Crescent A. C. in the afternoon by a score of 6 to 5. The morning game showed a result of 7 to 3 in favor of the New Yorkers. Union put up a game fight in both contests, and the sting of the morning's defeat braced them for a winning contest in the second game. The victory in the later encounter, coupled with the good playing against N. Y. U., bids fair for a successful season.

The morning game was chiefly a contest of pitchers. Holleran, the Garnet twirler, struck out twelve men, but went wild in spots and lost much of the advantage he had gained. Eight N. Y. U. men went to first by the easy way and subsequently circled the sacks. One run in the first and another in the fourth was forced as a result of four passes. Reynolds, Union's center fielder, played a spectacular game, scoring three putouts and two hits, one a two-bagger.

However, the old basketball "jinx," Delaney, the University boxman, had some twists that the Union boys couldn't find. Holleran's straight ball proved most effective, and when he did put them across there was nothing but a trail of smoke to be seen. But he wavered in the latter part of the first inning and walked three men. This he followed by two strike-outs, then another gift forced N. Y. U. to her first run.

Again in the fourth the opponents shoved over three more as a result of an error by Bartley, two passes by Holleran, and two singles. In the seventh New York added 3 more runs to her already healthy score through an error by Bartley combined with a double, a pass and a single. Union scored in the sixth when Beaver reached first on an error, stole second and crossed on Wittner's single. Reynolds met with a double in the eighth which Beaver followed up with a single, scoring the former. Hanley then singled and Beaver crossed.

The score:

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1919

A War Commencement.

The members of the Graduate Council have broken the ice this morning in preparation for the biggest commencement in Union's history—a war commencement. While class reunions and other alumni activities at this time of the year seem to hold but little of interest to the undergraduate, this is one commencement when as many of the students who can do so should remain. Many of the former members of the college are coming thousands of miles for this event and it is hardly asking too much of the students to remain those few short days to welcome home the older ones. Union isn't a college with her student body absent and her fraternity houses closed. Regardless of how many alumni return, there is a space here which only the life and spirit of the undergraduate can fill. He ought to be here to give vent to the renewed spirit of Union. He must be here to cheer on the team, to make some noise in the stunts, to welcome back former members of his fraternity. He is the connecting link between the college of the past and the college of the present. His presence is next to indispensable if the best results of the efforts now being made are to be realized.

Rushing.

Rushing is usually looked upon as a purely fraternal activity. On the other hand there is such a thing as rushing men for Union and it is more or less the duty of every loyal student to urge young men whom he knows would be an asset to the college, to enter up next fall. There remain about six weeks of college—unquestionably the six weeks of the year when Union is most favorably presented by its natural endowments. Of all months, May is Union's rushing season—the time when every one is attracted by the beauty of the campus. It is also a time when many students coming from preparatory schools will be looking around without having any definite notion of what they are going to do. If the student finds a good position available he may take that—if not he might come to college. If he is a good man Union wants him, and if he is told some things he will want Union.

Phi Beta Kappa or aUa?

Champions of the classics will be relieved to learn that one college in the country, at least, lives in an air of ideality. At a recent meeting of the Senior Class at Princeton it was voted that "it is more desirable to win a Phi Beta Kappa key than a letter in athletics." Despite the fact that Phi Beta Kappas are more plentiful and athletic letters fewer in proportion at Princeton than they are at Union, it is interesting to conjecture what the sentiment here is with regard to the matter. The constant decline in the number of students pursuing the course of Bachelor of Arts would seem to indicate that keys are not sought for with the diligence which was evidenced when the first call for baseball candidates went out this spring.

A recent edition of the "Alumni Monthly" contains some interesting statistics which offer a very striking rebuttal for those who maintain that "key men never get anywhere after they leave college." It doubtless is true that the memory of a successful college career is sometimes a hard thing to combat in business, just as it was painful to step from the commencement platform in the home town high school and become a Freshman who had to wear a green cap and smoke a corn cob. But a Phi Beta Kappa key is not the sure sign of failure in life that some would like to make it.

It is a noticeable trait in some people, nevertheless, that having reached a certain stage of advancement, they stop. Stopping is a hard thing to do. One must usually either move ahead or go backward and invariably when he thinks he has just stopped, he is slipping down. Probably that explains why some very brilliant lights in the classroom cease to shine in the world. They take the year after graduation off, just to recuperate and reflect upon the steps of the ladder they have ascended. That year shortly grows into a decade and they are not just where they intended to be. But Phi Beta Kappa isn't always to blame. Often times there are "U" men among that number.

A certain Frenchman in speaking of American characteristics remarked that the verses

"Trust no Future how e're pleasant;
Let the dead Past bury its dead.

Act, act in the living present,—
Heart within and God o'erhead."

Were truly typical of the national trait. It certainly gives one a satisfied feeling, but is it true? Did you ever see an American waste time?

ELECTIVES MUST BE MADE BEFORE MAY 17TH

Members of the Junior and Sophomore Academic classes must make their electives before May 17. This notice also applies to Sophomore Engineers who must select the special courses they intend to pursue, and to all other students who are electing modern languages.

The morning's defeat started the fighting blood in the veins of the Union players, and they started for the Crescent A. C. to win or bust. It didn't take the squad very long to get acclimated, and in short order Union had piled up twelve hits against the opponents' six. Wittner opened a fine batting average, collecting three hits, among them a two-bagger. Butler took the mound for Union and pitched a veteran's game. He also received perfect support from the infield.

Although three errors were tallied against Union's infielders, they did not occur at critical points as in the former game. In the eighth inning Union's ship came in, when singles by Mallery and Butler, coupled with an error by O'Rorkt, were followed up with hits by Beaver and Wittner. In this inning Union put across three runs and cinched the game, although the Crescents followed with two in their half. Butler soon put the lid on further scoring in the ninth.
