The squads were put through a hard scrimmage on Thursday, followed by talks and drills. The coaches are finding the results of the experiments and shifts which have been made for some time bearing good fruits, and the line and backfield is now a known factor.

"Frankie" Moynihan, injured in the Williams game, was out for light practice yesterday, but he will be unable to enter a game for another week or two. "Don" Price is out again and will no doubt play his usual game at guard. "Tubby" Rosekrans is showing up better than ever in the line bucks, and he is sure to be a consistent ground gainer. The center of the line is gradually strengthening, and a strong, well-balanced fighting machine will face Worcester Tech today.

Yesterday's practice was light on account of the rain, but it afforded excellent opportunity for practice with a slippery ball, and allowed the coaches to polish up the minor rough spots on the whole team.

From the scrimmage of Thursday and the individual action of the men in play, nothing less than a good hard, smashing game will be played by the team today. There is an atmosphere of confidence along the whole line and in the back-field. This week's hard drilling in straight football is having its effect and the morale of the team is at its best. Whether Worcester brings a heavy fighting line or a light tricky one, the wearers of the Garnet will be there to fight their best, every foot of the way. The team is ready for fight or frolic, and it needs but the cheering and solid backing of the student body to carry it through to a clean, well-earned victory.

SCOBY CHOSEN FOR DEMOCRATIC LEADER: TAYLOR VICE-PRESIDENT OF WILSON CLUB

Students Organize Democratic Club.

TAYLOR VICE-PRESIDENT

Thirty Men Turn Out to Join the Club and Hear Harangue on Wilson's Virtues.

Hal A. Scooby was elected president of the club of Democratic supporters which was organized in Washburn Hall last evening; Taylor, '18, was elected vice-president, and Marvin King, '18, secretary-treasurer.

The nucleus of the meeting was a small gathering, which braving the typical Democratic weather prevailing last evening, collected around the chapel door and waited until a delegation of spellbinders arrived from Albany when an adjournment was taken to Doc Mac's room in Washburn Hall. The first speaker was Mr. Gardner K. Byers, a student in the Albany Law School and chairman of the Woodrow Wilson Union University League. Mr. Byers harangued his audience, which numbered about thirty, for upwards of three-quarters of an hour. Officers were then elected and after Prof. F. E. Creighton of Albany had addressed the meeting an adjournment was taken until next Wednesday evening. Marvin King presided at the meeting.

Mr. L. M. Wilson, secretary of the Wilson Independent League in Schenectady, made a few remarks preliminary to Mr. Byers' speech. He declared that the national Democratic organization would be glad to help the Woodrow Wilson Union University League and informed his hearers that the league now had a total of 60 members and prophesied that there would be 100 by election day. His remarks were greeted by an enthusiastic outburst of applause.

Mr. Byers' introductory remarks concerned the scheme of organization which the local Wilson men are to follow. He stated that there is a lot of Republican sentiment in Union College but expressed the belief that there was more Democratic sentiment. With a few brief words of advice as to how to bring this Democratic sentiment to light the speaker passed to a consideration of the issues of the campaign and to advancing arguments to prove that Woodrow Wilson should be returned to the White House. He declared that the Republican party was the party of special privilege; that President Wilson has steered clear of special priv-

HARLOW EXPERIENCED IN MISSIONARY WORK

Has Been Active In Non-Christian Countries.

ENLISTING NEW MEN

Mr. H. Ralph Harlow who spoke at the Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday evening and at chapel Thursday morning, left yesterday to complete his round of the colleges before returning to Smyrna.

Mr. Harlow has had large experience in foreign mission work. Since his graduation from Worcester Academy and Harvard University, he has carried out missionary activities in non-Christian countries, coupling the teaching of the Christian religion with practical work for the betterment of conditions among the people in Turkey and surrounding countries. For the past few years he has been connected with the International Board of the Y. M. C. A. and under their direction has had charge of the college in Smyrna.

His talk at Silliman Hall and in Chapel were thoroughly enjoyed, but those who heard him speak informally on his experiences in Europe since the opening of the war, and heard him tell of the work which the American Y. M. C. A. is doing among the prison camps received a lasting impression of a man who has done big things.

Mr. Harlow presented the call of the foreign field in a new light and from a new point of view. He came to Union, as he has come to all the universities, with a desire to secure volunteers to go abroad to help in the work. While it is true that there is a great demand for Christian missionaries, there is also a demand for trained men in every field, especially in those of agriculture, pedagogy and business. Mr. Harlow stated that the demand for men of ability in any line is far from being satisfied, and that there are opportunities galore for such men to make honorable and comfortable fortunes in the foreign field.

While on the campus, Mr. Harlow had personal interviews with a great many of the students. Likable at first sight, he was more so after a little conversation when his versatility and under-

FOUR HOUSE DANCES.

Date Set for Phi Alpha Dance; Soiree Will Usher in Winter Season.

The autumnal social season will be opened tonight when four fraternities will give house dances and will close on the night of November 27 when the annual Phi Alpha dance occurs. Thanksgiving vacation will mark the interim between the fall and winter seasons. The latter will open with the Sophomore Soiree which will probably be held December 9.

Tonight Kappa Alpha, Delta Phi, Beta Theta Pi and Phi Gamma Delta will entertain following the Worcester game. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Van Eps and Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence of Schenectady will chaperone the Kappa Alpha dance. Mrs. Tom Moore of Schenectady, Mrs. Thomas R. Perry of Utica and Mrs. Robley Vaughan of Schenectady for Delta Phi. Mrs. Hugh Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Starbuck, Mrs. Edward Vromann and Dr. and Mrs. Treder the Beta Theta Pi dance. Mrs. Dann L. Wood of Schenectady, Mrs. Edward V. R. Payne of Mechanicville, and Mrs. George R. Boutleon of Rochester for Phi Gamma Delta.

standing of the college man's problems came to light. No man who talked with him, could help but take to him, for as one of the students said, "He is human."

Mr. Harlow realized the tremendous difficulties under which the Union Y. M. C. A. is laboring and he felt and stated that it was now up to the student body to put its shoulder to the wheel, and push the work along to success.

Harlow is gone, but there is no doubt that Union College men now realize and understand what the president of Hamilton College meant when he said, "Give us more men like Harlow."

The circulation department of the CONCORDIENSIS is doing its best to please its subscribers. Up to the present time those living on the campus have received their copies on the day of publication, while those living off the campus have received, or are supposed to have received, their copies in the next morning's mail. Beginning this week we shall attempt to deliver those subscribers who live a reasonable distance from the campus on the day of publication. Frank Thearl, (son of J. J. Thearle) will do his best to reach all those subscribers living with a half mile or so of the campus.

A VERY FINE START.

Today many of the fraternities are entertaining. Tonight many of the houses will blaze out the news that they are sheltering house parties and that great are the doings within. We have the ladies with us for the first time this year.

It is very good indeed to see things social started off with such eclat, for it augurs a booming season to come. And a booming social season, let us say, is a mighty important item in the goings-on of the undergraduates.

Not important, we hasten to add, in the sense of its happening to be one of the things that the undergraduate spends a good deal of his time at. Not that at all, but rather in the sense of its being one of the things that a college ought to be proficient in.

We wonder if the men here at Union ever stopped to think that a whizzingly successful Junior Prom is every bit as good an advertisement to the college as a good, sound trimming of Williams, or Amherst, or Columbia at football would be? It is, absolutely. The young lady is a mighty potent factor in the choosing of a college by a young man. She may never speak the name of Union—or anything else—to him; he may have been as shy as the proverbial gazelle all his high school days. But Mary went to Union for a house-party and, when she returned, she told someone what a perfectly grand place Union was, and someone told someone else, and the story went on and on and on, ad infinitum.

Also, it is most pertinent that the reputation for refinement, which goes hand in hand with the ability to entertain gracefully and hospitably, is a very, very good reputation to have. Especially does this sort of name appeal to the women. And the mother very often makes the final choice of college for her son.

A very fine start, these parties of tonight. We truly hope it isn't a flash in the pan. Union's reputation as a grand old Alma Mater will this year increase directly with the number—and success—of her social functions. May they be many. And may they be whizzingly successful.

No phase of Columbia athletics has been as thoroughly discussed, in print, at mass meetings and otherwise, as the crew problem. Last year, and during the summer, changes were made in matters concerning crew policy and management. The result has been that the man who presents himself as a candidate for an eight at Columbia is offered greater inducements than elsewhere. He has the assurance that he can continue with the squad as long as he cares to, that he will not be dropped as the result of a gradual weeding out process. He may not be a Varsity or freshman calibre; only a small number of the men who report are, as is generally the case elsewhere. Ample provision has been made; he will be given an opportunity to row on a class eight or some other combination.

Nor will work of this nature be uninteresting to the candidate. As far as is possible he will be as much under the supervision of Coach Rice as if he were rowing on the varsity. Races will be arranged for the eight in which he is rowing.

All these plans will materialize if, and only if, a sufficient number of men report regularly on the river and on the machines. The boats and barges are on hand; the facilities at Edgewater are adequate. Eighty odd men have signed promissory notes, signifying that they will report on the river this fall. If payment is made when the notes fall due, there will be little need for further discussion of the much mooted crew problem. It will have been solved.

The Week's Editorials.

THE OUTING CLUB When the Colgate Outing Club was founded three years ago, a great need of the student body began to receive attention. We refer to the need of some organized movement toward bringing Colgate men into closer relationship with, and a fuller understanding of, the great outdoors. Originally conceived solely for the purpose of luring men away from the fireside, or radiator, during the few months of winter, for ski or snowshoe excursions to the neighboring woods, the Outing club has gradually widened its scope of activities so that it now offers advantages to every man enrolled in its membership, and any man may be a member who pays the small annual due exacted.

An annual Camera contest provides incentive for the amateur photographer to exercise his talents in the direction of winter photography. The sending of representatives to the Winter Carnival held by Dartmouth College or some other institution creates an opportunity for men proficient in the use of skis or snowshoes to compete with other college men. The local carnival,—held under the auspices of the club, presents further opportunities for competition. The annual trip to the Adirondacks enables men making the trip to enjoy, for several days, the sports of Adirondack winter. Last, but by no means least worthy, of mention are the weekly or semi-weekly hikes taken to conveniently located nooks in the woods which abound in this and adjacent valleys. All these hikes are conducted throughout the college year and alone should prove sufficiently attractive to appeal to every red-blooded man.

TO THE FRESHMEN

Now that the class of 1920, the largest, etc., class in the history of the college, is duly installed within our walls, the process of quickly assimilating the members thereof is the immediate problem before the undergraduates.

Life says to the entering men what has been said before: Start right by doing what you are told. Hold strictly to the "Hello Rule," being sure to be first with a wholesome "hello" to every man you pass, on or off the campus. Learn the names, first of your classmates, then of the rest of us, and do it quickly. Learn the college songs and cheers, and do it quickly. Get right into some activity, with hands, feet, heads and shoulders, and see how you can tear things up by perspiring your brains as well as your bodies. Make a ripping start and it will open the way to collegiate success. Hold, cling to your ideals, but don't stop there. Take a good jump towards them. There is an incomparable exhilaration in knowing that you've done a good job. Try it.

—Hamilton Life.

"CHALLENGE" PLANS ENERGETIC SEASON

In spite of an unusual number of scoffers who predicted an early demise for "Challenge," this publication enters its second year when the November number appears in the colleges, late this month.

The personnel of the board of editors has undergone a change, and M. L. Shuster is the new Editor-in-Chief; James Marshall will be managing editor and Phyllis Perlman assistant editor. All are members of the Columbia School of Journalism.

As previously announced the editors of "Challenge" plan to feature each issue with an elaborate symposium, concerning such subjects as "The Place of Religion in College," "Coeducation," and "The Place of Fraternities in College Life." Contributions will be welcomed.

"Challenge" seems here to stay.

NEW POLICY ADOPTED.

Beginning with next week the CONCORDIENSIS will contain a literary supplement every Saturday.

Colgate—The games with the Universities of Illinois, Yale and possibly Brown, are to be reproduced on a scoreboard in Hamilton under the auspices of the College Y. M. C. A. If the weather permits they will be shown at the back of the Y. M. C. A. Building. Otherwise they will be shown in the gymnasium. To meet the expenses of the reproduction it will be necessary to charge a small admission fee. This will be placed within the reach of all students.

In times past these Y. M. C. A. reproductions have been successful. Students have turned out in large numbers. The detailed reproduction of the play has effected almost as great a showing of enthusiasm as would the game itself. Plans for leasing wires and final decision as to what games to show will be completed by the Y. M. C. A. authorities within a few days.

By Ernest W. Mandeville.

It would seem that after a hard day's study for a psychology examination a philosophical play would be almost unbearable, and so "The Master" would have been had it not been done in the most exquisite way. Bahr's greatest achievement in his dialogue, which reveals nooks of character in every line. His observations of life and his deftness of touch place him far above any of our American dramatists.

And that brings us to the question of the differences between European and American dramatists. European plays have literary value while very few of ours have. Our playwrights lack the intellectual training and the artistry of the European dramatist. The American mind does not absorb itself in problems, but skins lightly on with the plot. If "The Master" had been written by an American it would have ended in a perfectly moral manner and exploded the strong stand taken for character.

Why can't we have some American dramatists? We have our Sheldons, our Fitchs and our Moodys, of course, but who will compare in any way with Hermann Bahr, who, by the way, is only one of this high order? How can we produce such dramatists unless we provide for their training? The dramatic quality in children should be carefully nurtured and developed. They should begin their dramatic education as early as they begin their baseball education. Every school in the land should have a dramatic department. After a generation of such training we would have the greatest dramatists just as we have the greatest ball players. But there, there, we aren't writing a special article, so we'll have to get back to last evening's entertainment.

In our review of the season we intend to rate the attractions that play Schenectady as to their intrinsic worth and we have no hesitation in saying now that "The Master" will rank first. Moreover it is our contention that Arnold Daly is the best actor on the American stage today. At first his manner may seem a little affected, his acting a little artificial, but then it must be remembered that in order to make people in the audience, some of them a hundred feet or more away, think that he is moving, speaking, and appearing like the character would in real life, he has to exaggerate somewhat. As Bronson Howard says, "the only way to make them think one is doing it, is by not doing it but by doing something else."

Arnold Daly was once an office boy in the office of Charles Frohman and now at forty-one years of age—but as we have filled our column we'll let it go at that.

SCOBY CHOSEN FOR DEMOCRATIC LEADER

ellege; that he has applied the principles of the "new freedom" to all classes and that he is the champion of labor. He asserted that the present prosperity of the country is not due to the war but to the Federal Reserve Act and the sound financial policy of Mr. Wilson.

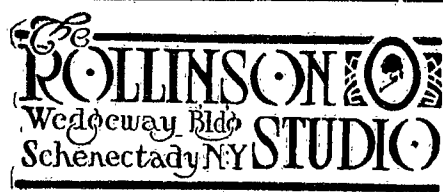

"It is treason," he said, "to say that Wilson has lost the country's honor. Europe must respect us for she must look to us for financial aid. Mexico will hold us in highest esteem when she finds that Wilson has used friendship instead of favor. The people are not concerned with the methods of Mr. Wilson. The result of his methods is peace."

After scoring these points and taking a slap at Elihu Root and Theodore Roosevelt Mr. Byers directed an attack against the Republicans, whom he declared to be incompetent to handle the Mexican situation, saying that they do not care about American lives in Mexico. He admitted that Wilson has made mistakes in handling that ticklish problem but declared that he was "fundamentally right."

After drawing a parallel between Woodrow Wilson and Abraham Lincoln the orator of the evening wound up with an eloquent peroration bestowing on Mr. Wilson the titles, "administrator of justice, exponent of democracy, lover of peace, advocate of preparedness."

Chairman King then called for nominations for president and Scoby was unanimously elected. After taking the chair Scoby made a brief speech of acceptance, saying "I'm a Wilson man,—that's all," which brought forth a round of applause.

The other officers were next chosen as previously stated and Chapman was made chairman of a committee on membership the other members of which are Newell, Taylor and Green.

Prof. Creighton made the closing speech, saying that it was easy to argue the Republicans down. "Some people vote the Republican ticket because it is the G. O. P. Some vote the Democratic ticket because only niggers vote the Republican ticket. These people are not intelligent. There is very little reason for electing Hughes. We cannot afford to lose a man who has done so much for the American people as Woodrow Wilson."

The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday evening, October 18, at the same time and place.

PLATTSBURGHERS WILL HAVE GUN PRACTICE

Plans Under Way to Secure G. E. Range.

Efforts are being made by Dr. Hale to effect an arrangement with the Schenectady Rifle Club whereby members of the faculty and student body desiring to join the club may do so and thus obtain the privilege of using the rifle range at the G. E. works. Dr. Hale is endeavoring to secure a fixed day on which the range would be reserved for the Union members of the club and expects to be able to complete such arrangements the forepart of next week.

The men who were at Plattsburgh this summer are among those who are ready to become affiliated with the Schenectady Rifle Club. This club is connected with the National Rifle Association to which the war department supplies ammunitions and other material necessary to a rifle range. The annual fee is $2.50. Records of the practice are kept and forwarded to the war department.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Freshmen Bible Classes conducted by the Y. M. C. A. are coming on nicely, and the attendance is most gratifying.

In order to reach those men who may live out of town or who have other occupations later in the afternoon, it is planned to organize a class to meet at about 1 o'clock. It is hoped that a class meeting at this time will afford the opportunity of study heretofore denied to many of the students because of the hour.

DR. RICHMOND IS
GUEST OF HONOR

At 150th Anniversary of Rutgers College.

The 150th anniversary of the founding of Rutgers College at New Brunswick, N. J., will be observed this week. It was started in 1766 under the name of Queens College in honor of the Queen of England. In 1770 the present site was obtained and in 1870 it became a state college. The exercises will begin Friday morning and will continue over Sunday. Dr. Richmond will be a guest of honor. Rev. Dr. Andrew V. V. Raymond, L. L. D., of the class of 1875, will preach the sermon Sunday morning. Dr. Raymond was president of Union College from 1894 to 1910.

On Sunday, October 8th, Dr. Richmond preached at the Manual Baptist Church in Albany.

On October 25, the President will journey to Hudson where he will give a paper on Robert Burns, before the Women's Club of that city. While in Hudson he will be the guest of the Reverend George Yeisley.

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS

The following members of the freshman class as a result of their high standing in the regents are now holding state scholarships entitling them to $100 per annum for four years: Roy Barhvdtd. Dow Beckman, Earl Bedell, Fred Comstock, Julian Hager, John Hoppe, Robert Jones, Fred King, Jerome Loevenheim, William Mayer, Morris Rock and William Warner.

MANDOLIN CLUB IS TWENTY-FIVE STRONG

Gradually Rounding to Mid-Season Form.

The Mandolin Club held its second rehearsal this week. The club is beginning to get into shape for its first concert which will be held sometime about the first of November. About twenty-five men were present and there are still some more who will try-out. Although they have no coach, Hooper is putting them through a good drill and as the selections are the best, everyone feels hopeful of a successful season.

ANOTHER GOOD POINT.

"Don't you know that automobile of yours is a joke?"
"Yep," replied Mr. Chuggins.
"That's the reason I selected it. It's a great thing to have a motor car that makes people laugh when they see it coming instead of getting mad."—Washington Star.

"What did you say your business was?"

"I am a critic."

"You criticise people?"

"You might say so, yes."

"And do you mean to tell me you get paid for that?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

FAST TEAMS COMING IN UNDER CLASSES

Sophomores' Heavy Line Their Dependence.

'20 BACKFIELD GOOD

Is Expected to Do Wonders in Making up for Indifferent Line.

Both the sophomores and the freshmen football teams are rapidly rounding into form under the able coaching of Phil Downs and Bud Young. The heavy line of the sophs are their main dependence. The fast and aggressive backfield of the frosh is expected to even up this handicap, however. The men who are trying are:

1919—Hathaway, Captain De Rose, Frees, Schnitzlein, Green, Tell, Lyman, Kelsey, Guild, Frisbee, Cassidy, Beaver, Parker, Gillespie, Cunningham, May, Garty, Little, Reed, Brind, Weinert, Glockner, Schamberger.

1920—Dougal, Wall, Marsh, Wilkes, Eisenberg, Thompson, Wilkinson, McMaster, Hoar, De Castro, Jones, Witbeck, Kidder Fox, Hager, Jennings, and ten or twelve others who have not been out regularly. Some of these men have preb. school records but are not eligible for the varsity.

BUFFALO CLUB TAKES IN THREE NEW MEN

The Buffalo Club, of which Hal Scoby is president, has started active work again. Three new men have been elected to membership. Cowles Wadsworth, J. E. de Castro and Joseph Wilkinson.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES

Williams—November 4 to 10 is the time set for the first period of the fraternity rushing season as determined by the Inter-fraternity Council at its meeting last evening in Jesup hall. The second period will begin on November 11 and continue indefinitely.

A separate period for the rushing of new men other than freshmen will begin on October 14 under the same regulations as the later season, the first period running through October 20, and the second period beginning the following evening. Date cards will be distributed on Monday and all invitations for this period must be in the hands of the Executive Committee of the Council by 11 o'clock Wednesday evening. In both seasons there will be four dates on Sunday and but two on week-days.

Wesleyan is to have a new Chemical Laboratory costing $150,000.

Tufts has an entering class this year of 200.

Wesleyan has an entering class of 130.

WORK BEGUN ON THIS YEAR'S GARNET

Preliminary Organization Completed.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Pierre Hoag is Asst. Business Manager; Newell Art Editor; Bascom Literary Editor.

Cameron and Cook, the manager and editor-in-chief respectively of the 1918 Garnet, have appointed the following additional officers from the other members of the board: Pierre Hoag, assistant business manager, Earl Newell, art editor, and F. G. Bascom, literary editor.

All the class pictures have been taken for the Garnet with the exception of the sophomore and the pictures of the various fraternities are to be taken by White as soon as possible.

Cameron and Cook are beginning early with the work of publishing the year book, determined to equal the record set last year for early publication. The junior pictures are all to be in by the first of February and "stunt" pictures may be handed in to Cameron at any time before that date.

A number of '19 men are busy trying out for the managership of the 1919 Garnet. A call for aspirants to the editorship will not be issued until later.

SHUMWAY STRENGTHENS WORCESTER TECH LINE

The next game on the football schedule will be played at Schenectady against Union. Union has played two games this year and has been defeated both times. Saturday, Williams trimmed Union to the tune of 13 to 0, while a week ago Union lost to Middlebury 5 to 0. It is probable that some shifts will be made; Shumway is expected out and will materially strengthen the line. The team will leave Friday afternoon for Schenectady.—Tech News.

University of California—The new $615,000 hospital will soon be completed.

CROSS COUNTRY WORK UNDER WAY

For Coming Intercollegiate Meet.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Soph and Frosh Track Men Working Out for Election Day Meet.

A cross country squad averaging ten men is reporting daily at the gym for practice and the track team is rounding into shape for the Intercollegiate meet to be held at Colgate on Saturday, October 28. Among those who besides Captain Peaslee are working out are Hance, Charlie Bowman, Morris and Stebbins, all '18, A. S. Ladd, A. W. Ladd, and Watts, all '19, and Streeter, '20.

Hughes, '20, and McGarty, '19, the captains of the underclass track teams, have a number of men out getting in shape for annual inter-class meet on Election day.

NO DANGER.

A burly man, the picture of perfect health and strength, walked into the office of a prominent accident insurance company and wanted to be insured.

"Are you engaged in any hazardous business?" asked the secretary.

"Not in the least," replied the applicant.

"Does your business make it necessary for you to be without sleep at night?"

"No, sir."

"Would your business ever require you to be where there were excited crowds—for instance, at a riot or a fire?"

"Never, sir."

"Is your business such as to render you liable to injury from carriages or runaway horses?"

"Oh, no, sir."

"Does your business throw you in contact with the criminal classes?"

"Good gracious! No, sir."

"I think you are eligible. What is your business?"

"I am a policeman."—Tit-Bits.

RAIN DAMPENS THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Advances Expected Today and Monday—Finals Approaching.

The rain of yesterday put a damper on the matches in both tennis tournaments, but with favorable weather today and Monday, the matches should be fairly well along toward the finals.

In the Individual Tournament, but one man, Knight, has reached the fourth round. In the third rounds, Rosenthal, Persons and Girling are awaiting their opponents, who have not as yet finished the second. Matches already to play off the third round are: Heatley vs. Beckett, Clapp vs. Dorlon, Tremper vs. Wadsworth, Wilkes vs. Galbraith. If those who have entered the tournament will play off their games as soon as possible, it will greatly facilitate the fraternity tournament.

The following fraternities who have won out in the first, and their opponents for the second round are: Sigma Phi vs. Alpha Delta Phi; Pyramid Club vs. Delta Phi. Psi Upsilon awaits the decision of the match between Kappa Alpha and Delta Upsilon.

REV. J. W. YOUNG SPEAKS TOMORROW

An Address That the Students
Cannot Afford to Miss.

The speaker at vespers tomorrow will be Rev. J. Wallace Young, assistant pastor at the People's Church of this city. Rev. Young is a graduate of Auburn Theological Seminary, and was formerly a pastor in Albany. College men are again reminded of the real discourtesy of meeting these various speakers were a mere handful of listeners and are urged to come around to the chapel at 5:00 P. M. tomorrow afternoon.
